Dr. J. K. Warrick

Following nearly 38 years of pastoral ministry, J. K. Warrick was elected to the Board of General Superintendents by the 26th General Assembly held in Indianapolis, Indiana, in 2005. He pastored churches in Oklahoma, Texas, Florida, Ohio, Indiana, and Kansas. Prior to his election, he served for nearly 12 years as pastor of College Church of the Nazarene in Olathe, Kansas.

A pastor at heart, he considers his role as general superintendent an opportunity to join his colleagues in shepherding the global church. He has a heart for church planting, evangelism, world missions, discipleship, and compassionate ministries. Central to his ministry is the encouragement of the people of God to find a place of service and ministry in the church and community. He is passionate about equipping pastors and laypersons to be missional leaders.

After attending Southern Nazarene University (formerly Bethany Nazarene College) he later graduated from Trinity College. He is an alumnus of Wesley Biblical Seminary. In 1994 his alma mater, Southern Nazarene University (Bethany Nazarene College), honored him with a doctorate of divinity in recognition of his service to Christ and the Church of the Nazarene. He has served on the Boards of Trustees at Mount Vernon Nazarene University and MidAmerica Nazarene University and also has served on district boards and committees in the church.

Dr. Warrick has been married to Patty (Delores J. Ouzts) since 1967. They have two adult children, Brad and Jill, and five grandchildren.

Dr. James R. Spruce

Jim Spruce has been superintendent of the Illinois District since September 2003, following seven years of service as the Nebraska District Superintendent. Pastorates have been at Flint (Central), Michigan; Centralia, Washington; Houston, Texas; Champaign and Belleville, Illinois; and Cadillac, Michigan. He was ordained in 1970.

Dr. Spruce has served as a member of the General Curriculum Committee and General NYI Council, Board of Pensions and Benefits and General Board. He is currently a member of the USA Course of Study Advisory Council and another general church committee. The author of four books, numerous articles and adult Sunday School lessons, he is a graduate of Bethany Nazarene College (now Southern Nazarene University), (B.A.), Nazarene Theological Seminary (M.Div.) and McCormick Theological Seminary (D.Min.).

Born in Blytheville, Arkansas in 1942 and reared in Nazarene parsonages, Jim married Karen Aller of Nampa, Idaho in 1963. Karen received a degree in music education at BNC. The Spruces have two daughters who live in Idaho, Cynthia Grinder and Sharolyn Spruce, and a son, Steve, of Auburn. Jim and Karen have seven grandchildren.

CHURCH REPORTS

NOTES:

ANNA FIRST

I bring my 11th report for our wonderful church and my 36th report as Elder in the Church of the Nazarene. This has been a good year in spite of the tests and trials. The Lord has guided and directed our steps and we are finishing up our statistical year in unity and peace.

We have a wonderful Church Board that has stuck together under the assault of the enemy. They have given much needed guidance to me and support during battle. I regret my physical setbacks and the weakness of this ole body at times. However, I am starting to feel stronger as we close out this church year and I look forward to serving the Lord and Anna Church with renewed vigor.

Our revival with Dr. J.K. Warrick, General Superintendent and chairman in the fall were very beneficial to the spiritual well-being of our church. We had a number of seekers during these special services and during regular worship times. This is a blessing we should always give thanks to God for and continue to pray He will draw souls to the foot of the Old Rugged Cross in our new year.

As I will start my 13th year at Anna in August, I still feel overwhelmed at the honor of pastoring Anna Church. I still know this is where the Lord wants me to be and I'm in the center of His Will!

The ministries of the Anna Church are not given by the Pastor alone, not by a long shot. Our church is the Body of Christ working together up front and mostly behind the scenes in reaching out to the lost and broken. That is what the church is, a hospital for the lost, the broken, the lonely, the hurting and the empty. We know because that describes us before we came to Jesus, "Lost and undone, without God or His Son" But then we found Jesus, Oh glorious day!

I thank those that serve our Lord faithfully and look to please Him and win the Lost. I'm thankful for the assistance of Elder Larry Barnhart and Judie his wife our Associate Pastor. Our Church Secretary Verna Fuller along with her sidekick and husband Larry Fuller.

Anna Church has very effectively ministered to our Veterans by our Veterans Day Service planned by Phil Ray and Leonard Sadler. We had 299 in attendance on that special day feeding all a wonderful meal but more importantly, the Word of God.

Our church is still reaching out and using holidays of the world to share Jesus and His love. Back-to-School-Bash is another outreach attempting to meet the needs of families by helping them supply their children with school supplies. Leonard and Connie Sadler served as our seniors as Prime Time Directors. Our church also has ministries that reach out to our ladies on Mother's Day and our men on Father's Day, a special Sunday for our babies, for our men and women ministries. Our Apron Society served the Lord and our church well as they ministered to many in need in the last year. Thanks to Tedra Miller for your time and resources to lead this ministry.

A Big thanks also goes out to Chad Brooks and Terry Wiseman for having a Men's Ministry in our church. Fishing, hunting and get-together's where Wendy Wiseman fixed the food to strengthen the mighty hunters!

There are many that serve behind the scenes that do it not to be recognized but one day Jesus will say "Well done thy good and faithful servant".

In closing: I believe this year has taught us a valuable lesson! And that is if we do the Will of God, we will be attacked by the enemy for the devil hates spiritual churches. On the other hand, churches that never experience the battle are not doing anything to get the devil's attention.

ARCOLA FIRST

Dear Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce and members of the Illinois District Assembly,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Redeemer, Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to you from God Our Father.

This has been quite a year for us at Arcola First. I am quite certain I would not have chosen it to be this way, but God's ways are not my ways and his thoughts not my thoughts. Two of our members, my Aunt Maxine and Uncle Bill went on their heavenly reward within two days of each other. We had our first ever double funeral.

We lost four members and gained two new members. I was able to lead a sinner to salvation just 48 hours before he saw Jesus face to face. Nine of our members and non-members left because of personal dissatisfaction. But on the brighter side, we did get a new family of three that has been worshiping with us faithfully. We have begun a project of replacing the sanctuary windows and trim and replacing the dark wood paneling with white dry-wall.

By the grace of God we are anticipating a much approved year. In fact I believe this will be the best year ever! We have a new board of energized and eager members. I have made some changes in my secular work so I can focus more on the local church and The Church of Jesus Christ. I believe God still fills us with the Holy Spirit and empowers us to do His will, setting us aside as instruments of love, mercy and grace.

In His Service,

ARCOLA SPANISH –IGLESIA DEL NAZARENO

General Superintendent

Dr Jim Spruce, District Superintendent

Members of our District Advisory Board,

Delegates, Friends, Brothers, Sisters and Special Guests:

This year has been a challenging one for our local church. Our church members are working and praying with all their hearts to serve in the Kingdom of our King of Kings.

This year we have met various goals in our church:

- 4 people were baptized;
- 7 new members were received, as a direct result from personal evangelism and revivals;
- Every quarter we are having a half prayer and praise vigil;
- Women's and Men's Ministries were formally organized; and
- We participated in the 2nd annual Talent Festival with Beardstown Liberty Hispanic Church back in April 2012.

Challenges come and gone, and they have left a positive or negative mark on our lives, as the church weighs in on it's past, we thank God for His provision and for those who minister and pray for us, we are managing and being victorious every step of the way and it's because of you; you who continuo to pray for us, your and God's church.

To God be the glory, yesterday, today and always, many blessings to each and every one of you.

AUBURN

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Delegates and Friends of this Assembly,

I bring you my 8th report as pastor and the 107th annual report for the Auburn Church of the Nazarene. The past year has been one of different challenges for me in ministry and for our church as we adjust to bi-vocational ministry. I am grateful to our people and to my wife for stepping up to fill the pastoral care gap necessitated by my schedule.

I am grateful to the Lord for His continued blessings upon our ministry in Auburn. The Lord has enabled us to be a house of refuge and deliverance for those who have come to Him from very difficult circumstances. The message of hope that is at the core of the holiness message truly resonates with those who are escaping addiction, abuse and neglect. We are also continuing to minister to the children and youth of our community through our Wednesday night Sunday School. I am very proud of our workers who faithfully give their time on Wednesday nights. For so many of these kids, we are the only Jesus they have ever seen.

Our Ladies and Mens' ministries have taken off in the last few months. A good number of our ladies attended Ladies' Day at Olivet and plan to attend the Come to the Fire event in the Fall. We also held our first Men's Retreat in April and 12 men participated. The Lord met with us powerfully around the campfire as we studied the 4 great challenges of the Book of Malachi.

The Lord helped us right our financial ship this year and we were able to pay our budgets in full with a few dollars more. We thank the Lord for blessing and prospering our people.

In the new year we want to build more bridges to the families of our Wednesday night kids. We want to make some needed renovations to our Fellowship Hall. And, I want to hold a Discipleship Retreat for our people in the Fall.

The Lord is good to me. Though the work gets long at times and the body and mind grow weary, the Lord sustains me by His mighty hand. I count serving the Lord and our people as pastor to be a high privilege and honor and will gladly spend my self and be spent for Him and the church.

Faithfully,

Rev. Brian Hay

BEARDSTOWN

It is with great joy in the Lord Jesus Christ that I write this annual report. As I review the past year I cannot help but realize how much God has chosen to do among us. I rejoice in the marvelous spiritual growth that is exceedingly evident.

I reported last year that we were embarking on a year of prayer and that we as a congregation were striving to draw near to God and seek His will for ministry in our church. We began the prayer ministry with an expectation that God has a great work to be done through us, the congregation of the Beardstown Church of the Nazarene: A work that will be monumental in the history as well as the future of this church, if we will remove ourselves from the stage of importance and allow God to be Lord of all, to allow God to be the sovereign authority in this church, a church that starts in each of us. We are striving to be a people who are a blessing to God!

God has answered our prayers in a variety of ways throughout this last year. People have drawn closer to God as a result of prayer. We have also seen God gloriously deliver a woman who was demonized by multiple demons for over a decade. Others have been saved, and baptized. One man who was redeemed in March stated:

"I feel God at work in my heart. I feel God at work in my mind and my thoughts. Every day is a new beginning and a new end as I die daily. Waking up every day with Jesus has been a new experience for me, an experience that can never be forgotten. Now I walk every day with Christ. He died for me, took immeasurable amounts of pain and abuse for me, before I ever knew Him. He knew that I was an unwashed sinner, and still took His place on the cross for me. So, everyday forward [with Jesus] is to walk in a different life. It is a day of excitement, as well as a day of temptations, and struggles. But my Lord still walks with me, still guides me, and loves me unconditionally."

We are looking forward to what God has in store for us this next year as we are dedicated to serving God and bringing honor to Him as He continues His work in and through us.

BELLEVILLE EMMANUEL

It is with a humble and grateful heart that I bring to this Assembly my fifth report as pastor of Emmanuel Church. It is a privilege to serve our Lord in pastoral ministry. My prayer is that my life will always bring honor and glory to the church and most of all to our Lord and savior Jesus Christ.

Our focus as a congregation continues to be to make Christlike disciples by:

- 1) Worshipping with united hearts
- 2) Spreading the gospel
- 3) Helping to lead others to salvation
- 4) Nurturing spiritual growth
- 5) Providing discipleship through purposefully developing opportunities to witness and disciple

We are so thankful for, Lisa, Tanner, Caitlin, Amber, Tyson, Wesley, Kenny, Dennis, Debbie and Mel, who are 10 new people who have joined us this past church year for worship and Bible Study, as well as becoming part of the Emmanuel family.

We give God thanks for the, 5 new Christians that were baptized, 3 new members by profession of faith and an increase in our responsibility list, and all budgets paid in full. Truly, God has been good to us!

We have stressed the importance of World Missions and giving to others. We were honored to have Missionaries Steve & Brenda Heap with us last fall. This was the first time several in our church had ever met or heard a missionary.

Like so many others finances continue to be a struggle. We are thankful for a slight increase in total monies raise. Our WEF and Pensions & Benefits budgets are paid in full. The Olivet and Illinois District budget are 50% paid for the year.

Once again God has been so good to us!

We have endeavored to reach out to the West Side of Belleville and the surrounding areas in the following ways;

- ◆ Back to School Supplies
- ◆ Food Pantry
- ◆ Fall Festival
- ◆ Trunk or Treating
- ◆ Vacation Bible School
- ◆ Veterans Day Celebration
- ◆ Children & Youth Ministries

There is still much to be accomplished in reaching the lost of our area, obstacles and challenges lay before us, but; "Nothing is impossible when you put your trust in God!"

"I tell you the truth, If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, Nothing will be impossible for you." Matthew 17:20

BELLEVILLE FIRST

I am pleased to bring my seventh report as pastor of Belleville First Church of the Nazarene. Our focus as a congregation is to make Christ-like disciples by:

- 1) Introducing people to a life transforming relationship with Jesus.
- 2) Enfolding people into the Body of Christ through significant relationship.
- 3) Empowering people to serve in the work God's Kingdom.
- 4) Growing people mature in Christ (holiness of heart and life).

Through a mixture of military transfers, civilian moves, and other transitions, this past year continued to bring challenges in our finances and attendance. Our outreach and enfolding of new members and friends has not kept pace with the number of people who have left our church family. This reality has prompted us to reevaluate our mission strategy and renew our focus on outreach, small groups, and congregational care ministries. On a positive note - We have added seven new families (a total of 22 individuals) over the last three months. I am aware of only two families that will transfer to new assignments in the next year.

None the less, Belleville First is a healthy congregation, evident in our fellowship, outreach to our community, and by the manner in which the congregation cares for one another.

A ministry highlight is the development of our Young Leaders Academy that we lead at our area school; Whiteside Middle School. We also partner with other churches to provide lunches during the summer months to children who receive free lunches during the school year. Several of these children have participated in our VBS and Champions Sports Camp program. These activities have helped us build relationships with families in our community as well as with community leaders.

The people that provided vital leadership at Belleville First are too numerous to mention in this brief report. I am blessed to pastor a congregation that understands and lives out the priesthood of all believers and sees the role of the pastoral staff to equip, empower, and partner with them to serve the mission of Jesus Christ.

I am grateful for the daily ministry partnership of our ministry leadership team. Pastor Matt Soulia is a blessing and asset to our congregation through his example, vision and leadership. Pastor Andie Avram is making good progress in her education as she pursues her first district, minister's license. My wife, Lynne, serves as our Administrative Assistant. She goes beyond the call of duty and her job description to serve the church and care for our congregation.

BELLEVILLE KOREAN

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, and members and friends of the assembly, greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ from Belleville Korean Church. Things have gone well and we expect things to get even better in the days ahead. We do not doubt that in all things God works for the good of those who love him. We will do our best for the glory of God under the direction of the Holy Spirit.

Last year we completed the replacement of the windows of the church and parsonage. The parsonage sidings were also changed new so we could save on utility bills and look nice. The project needed over $100,000. One of rooms downstairs was flooded, and we had to remove the carpet and fixed the room and the flooring.

Our church is focusing on serving, dedicating, and discipling. The emphasis of the ministry is words and prayer. We have discipleship classes (Bible Study) every Tuesday and Wednesday at 5:00 am and also early Morning Prayer worship every day except Sunday at 6:00 am. We feel empowered by the Holy Spirit through the words of life and early Morning Prayer.

Bill Bright wrote a book called, The Journey Home. He quotes Charles Haddon Spurgeon, who said, "May we live here like strangers and make the world not a house, but an inn, in which we sleep and lodge, expecting to be our journey tomorrow." Bill was diagnosed with a terminal disease, pulmonary fibrosis. He commented, "Knowing that heaven is our real home makes it easier to pass through the tough times, here on earth. I have taken comfort often in the knowledge that the perils of a journey on earth will be nothing compared to the glories of heaven." Challenges in ministry are often tough but we welcome them with faith. We may walk a desert pathway, but the end of the journey is the garden of God.

In closing, I am grateful to my family and church members. They are precious gifts from God. To God be the glory.

BENTON

Dr. Warrick, Dr Spruce, members and friends of the Illinois District. This is my 6th report as pastor of the Benton Church of the Nazarene and my 22nd report as a pastor in the Church of the Nazarene.

For the first time since my arrival at Benton we were not able to pay our budgets in full. The desire was there, but the down turn in the economy and the decrease in numbers made it more than we were able to do. But while budgets were not paid in full, ministry on the local level has continued.

One of the goals we have is to get the name "Benton Nazarene" out in front of our community. We want to be a visible church. We have accomplished this by:

- Being a host site for the Ministerial Alliance Summer Lunch Program
- Opening up the church for the local Brownie troop meetings
- Hosting a Trunk or Treat for the community
- A very successful Vacation Bible School
- Repairing and updating our lighted church sign
- Putting our Name and church information on the church van

In addition to becoming more visible in the community, we also recognized the need to minister to the men of our church—especially our young men. After watching several marriages break or almost break we realized we were failing our men and needed to step up our support to them. As a result we have started a small group ministry/Bible study to the younger married men in the church. Our goal is to develop men who will be faithful to their families, to their Lord and become leaders in the church.

We are very excited about our NYI ministry on Thursday evenings. We are seeing 15 + teens in our NYI meetings. The transition from attendance on Thursday to attendance on Sunday has been very slow but it is happening. We have great leadership and great volunteers who are very dedicated to presenting the message of God's love to the teens each week.

This has been an up and down year for both the church and the parsonage family. God has been faithful and we know that will continue. I am thankful for God's call upon my life. My desire is to be faithful to my Lord and a witness for Him in my world.

BETHEL COMMUNITY

Dr. Toler, Dr. Spruce, Members and friends of the Illinois District:

This is my first report for the Bethel Community Church and to the Illinois district. Since arriving at Bethel in June 2010, my family has been warmly received and loved by a loving and caring congregation. And for that we are grateful.

We praise God once again for His help in paying all budgets in full, a tradition which Bethel has held to for 60 or more consecutive years. This was a record year for moneys raised for all purposes. In spite of the economic difficulties of our day, the people of Bethel have been faithful and generous and have in their giving, made it possible to renovate the parsonage (not lived in for about 10 years), and to purchase a 42 passenger bus for evangelistic outreach. Lives are touched in our community and county by our financial and volunteer support of the Crisis Pregnancy Center, Christian Love In Action and the Cass County Food Pantry.

One year ago we were hard pressed to find two or three children in Sunday School and church. I am thrilled to report that today we now have between 10 and 15 and on occasion 18 children on Sunday morning. This past church year we have averaged nearly 30 children in our Wednesday night Caravan program. Most are from unsaved homes. It thrills me to report that 11 of these children prayed the sinners prayer and asked Christ to be their Savior and Lord. One year ago there was no youth ministry emphasis taking place and I am happy to report that in recent months, we have averaged between 8 and 10 youth on Wednesday evenings. Again, most of these are from unsaved homes. Bethel is a country church which poses a real challenge to "bring" them in. But I am grateful to all who have been faithful to the call to go and make disciples.

Other highlights of our year include:

- Olivetians Concert (ONU)
- Orpheus Choir concert (ONU)
- Gospel concert with Paul & Martha Layne
- Spring Revival with Rev. Ron Baker
- Zone Holiness Summit (Dr. Frank Moore)
- Zone mission rally
- Vacation Bible School
- Annual Weiner Roast
- Caravan Awards Ceremonies
- Youth Bonfire and Hayride
- Women's Ministry events
- Christmas Candlelight Communion Service
- Speaker for Beardstown High Baccalaureate service

God is moving at Bethel. I look forward with great anticipation as the Lord continues to raise up a godly people. I long to see souls saved, sanctified and serving.

CARBONDALE NEW BEGININGS

To: Dr. J. K. Warrick, Dr. Jim Spruce, and my Brothers and Sisters of the Illinois District.

This past year marks the ninth year from when Randy Wright and I planted New Beginnings Community Church in Carbondale; and many things look different today than they did then. From the original core group that began the church, there are only six adults and four children that remain. Ten out of a group of 30 that came to Carbondale to begin this Church; and four of the six adults are myself and Randy and our wives.

Last year I wrote a bleak and fearful report that spoke of lack of money, lack of people and a not so spiritual future, but this year I am more optimistic. When I attended seminary, in my Spiritual Formation class, Drs. Dee Freeborn and Morris Weigelt taught on the radical optimism of grace. I have preached on this subject several times in the last twelve years, but this year it has truly become a part of who I am.

I have discovered as a pastor that if I let go and let God have the situation, then it will turn out much better than if I stress about it. I have truly understood that radical optimism that only comes from the grace of our God. There are four areas that I would like to address:

1. Our Sunday average for 2010-2011 was 42 and for 2011-2012 it is 43.

Although it is smaller than were we were five years ago, I have set back and thank God for all the new people that he has brought to New Beginnings. Many core members have gone and they have been replaced by a whole new church, people from Carbondale and the surrounding area.

2. This new group of people that makes up New Beginnings at this time have their own identity and with it we needed to refocus the church. That is why we began the refocus process with the District Missionary Mark Copley this past fall. This is going to take dedication of those who will be a part of the Refocus Team, but with it will come a new direction for our church.

3. We are still a small church and we are serving a poverty stricken area and people. There are still weeks that we are down to our last few dollars, but I am not worrying about it. In fact we have been able to pay our budgets in full, and pay extra; and at the end of the day we still do not have any money in the bank, but the Lord continues to bless us with what we need to get through this horrible economic times.

4. Last but not least has been New Beginnings' spiritual health. I challenged everyone last year and the response was tremendous and there is a new spirit in our church. We are moving forward by the grace of God looking to all the Lord has in store for us in the next year. I have seen people grow spiritually over the last year and with this they have disciplined others. Although we have not grown greatly numerically over the last year, we have seen a great movement of the Lord. We might not have been able to afford a revival this last year, but we have had an actual revival of the life of this church. It is my hope and my prayer that this same spirit will exist next year.

Yes, we have had our ups and downs over the past year, but we have also had a multitude of blessings. We had another great Vacation Bible School. We were visited by Shawn Cooper, Preaching Ambassador from Olivet Nazarene University. We were visited by Mark Copley, District Missionary, and last but not least we were visited by Dr. Warrick and his wife, who brought along Dr. Tallmadge Johnson and his wife to our church. We have seen two people join the church. We have baptized five people this year. We have seen two young families either, come back to the church or start coming to the church and I look forward to more in the future.

With the Radical Optimism that is only found in the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, I can truly say that I look forward to this next year with eager anticipation of who God will send through the doors of New Beginnings and the direction that the Holy Spirit will take us. I thank God in advance for all the blessings He will bring us in the 2012-2013 church year.

CARLINVILLE

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, and brothers and sisters at assembly -

This is my 6th report as Pastor of the Carlenville C.O.T.N. The Lord continues to amaze with His goodness and mercy.

We have accomplished many physical improvements to the church and parsonage. My Mother in law due to health reasons had to move in with Kim and I. Our church family stepped up and not only built a ramp but gutted and renovated the bathroom at the parsonage to make it handicap accessible. I write this to give public thanks to a great church that loves its pastor and family enough to sacrifice in this fashion.

Our growth that we have been experiencing over the last few years has slowed a bit but we have still seen lives changed. People here are growing in their relationships with Jesus. We have seen some return that have run from Jesus but now realize that Jesus offers us a second chance.

Jesus is still working here in Carlenville. My prayer is that any that come to church here from the moment they pull into the parking lot to the moment they leave that each and everyone will draw closer in their journey with Jesus.

CASEY FIRST

Dr. Spruce and District friends,

This is my first report as pastor of Casey First, and what a wonderful year it has been. I was reminded of a wonderful truth this year- there are no better Christians or churches than those on the Illinois District! It was really difficult to make the transition after thirteen wonderful years at Pana First but the family of God here at Casey First has embraced Vicki and I from the first moment we drove onto the parking lot and met the “angry mob” (which consisted of one smiling saint). Since then we have seen increases in Sunday school, morning and evening worship and small groups. But most importantly there has been a tremendous presence of the Holy Spirit as we have worshipped together. Just recently eighteen people were sanctified by the Holy Spirit in one anointed service! Praise the Lord! Our mission statement is to see souls saved and sanctified and the Holy Spirit is doing just that on a weekly basis. But the ministry miracles at Casey First are not just happening on Sunday. The men’s ministry has more than doubled in size and there are several new small groups meeting including one for young married couples. It seems like every night there is something happening at Casey First- which is awesome! Not only has it been a great year but the future looks even brighter as we experience the abundant life Jesus promised.

Last year Pastor Todd had a vision to turn what was our storage shed into a youth center. Through the vision of God’s family that vision has turned into a 2,100 foot state-of-the-art facility that will be open this summer, not just for our youth but for people of all ages to fellowship together, including being used by the community during soccer games that are attended by hundreds of area children. And the debt on this building- zero! It has been completely paid for by the faithfulness of God’s people and the miraculous blessings of God Himself! What a wonderful God we serve!

I love being a pastor of a church that wants to be a lighthouse for the Lord. It has been a blessing to work with Pastor Todd Holman and Amy along with a church board that not only talks the talk but walks the walk. I thank God for my wonderful wife, Vicki, and my children Jennifer and Stephan, even though my little girl Jennifer did give her heart away to someone else☺. They are my joy and strength. Most of all I want to thank God. Every time I tell Him that I can’t do this job, He reminds me that He can. With God’s blessings, Jesus’ love, and the Holy Spirit’s power, Casey First is going to keep going, keep growing in Spirit and in numbers.

CENTRALIA

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, and the Illinois District Assembly,

Greetings from Centralia, I submit this report of behalf of the congregation and myself.

This past year has been one that has shown downward trends statistically with fewer in attendance, lower income, and fewer conversions than previous years. While this could cause us to become discouraged, we have decided to evaluate the declines and pray about what direction God would have us to take to reverse these trends. In this evaluation phase, we realized some very positive things.

First, we were able to stay financially stable even though income was down. We were able to pay all budget allocations in full, all local operating expenses in full, and have money in the bank at the end of the year. The board and I have tried to be fiscally diligent and make minor adjustments in spending along the way to allow this to happen.

Second, we realized our decline was heaviest in our children's ministry area. God is directing us toward a ministry directly aimed at families. Rather than a one week VBS push, we will be hosting a 13-week family oriented ministry including a weekly family meal, children's activity and education time, and sessions to help adults learn to better relate to their children and families. This program has been a group vision, and has caused the congregation to unite in this endeavor.

Thirdly, as a result of the first two positives, the congregation has grown more harmonious as we are working together to accomplish planning and execution of new programs and plans. It isn't just the board or the pastor making plans, the congregation is involved in the re-shaping of our ministry emphasis.

I look forward to the coming year with excitement as I am waiting to see what God has in store for our congregation. He has given us a plan, and we are working to put it in place. Please pray for us as we do so.

CHAMPAIGN FIRST

It is hard for me to believe this is my sixth report as pastor of Champaign First Church. This year in particular has flown by leaving some of our goals accomplished and others left undone. I'm glad I can say in the midst of the flurry I believe we have accomplished what is most important – we have loved God and loved people. And as we say the rest is details.

I have watched as our church family has walked alongside each other. Often it was through helping someone in need. Financially, physically, emotionally it really didn't seem to matter, many stood in the gap this year and showed God's love. Other times we laughed together and stood amazed as we saw how God was doing miracles in our midst. This year we made new friends and really enjoyed getting to know them. We also said goodbye to some wonderful friends. Some have moved away and others have finished their race on this earth. My mind goes especially to long time church member Paul Riddell. I miss his warm smile and kind words each Sunday.

We find ourselves in the process of trying to provide facilities that will help us minister to more people. Our building team has spent countless hours this year assembling information and weeding through priorities to come up with a plan that matches our dreams and our budget. They have done a fantastic job and I look forward to implementing phase one of the project they have proposed.

I want to say thank you to our wonderful staff, Pastor Cory and Rachel Swinderman, Dee Plowman and Danny Murrell. Thank you to those who have taken places of leadership in our church and have spent the extra hours needed to keep us moving forward. And thank you to our entire church family for being willing to love and be loved. May God bless you all with the same measure you have used to bless our family and our church.

This coming year should be an exciting time as we continue to be true to our vision to Love God and love people by getting them connected to God, to a group and to a team. I look forward to spending time with our leaders and coming up with fresh ways to see this vision accomplished. Most of all I look forward to getting to know each of you better as we work shoulder to shoulder in the service of our King.

In Christ,

CHAMPAIGN NEW DAY

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, friends and Delegates to this Assembly. I bring to you my 10th report for New Day Community Church of the Nazarene.

The last ten years could be described as the best of times and as the worst of times. When we moved to Champaign in December of 2002 we became a part of a congregation that was literally struggling for our lives. Because of a series of events New Day had dwindled down to 18 people with over $450,000 of debt, a building that needed series repairs. At the same time after 8 very successful years of Ministry in a growing church in Michigan, a new 300 seat sanctuary and plans for a full size gymnasium and children's center, God lead us back to Illinois so that we could be closer to my dying parents. I was convinced then as I am now that God's plan was for us to be a part of the New Day resurrection. Within a few months it became obvious that we had to sell our property and get out from under a strangling load of debt. It took longer to sell then we had and once it was sold we were literally broke. So, I became a bi-vocational pastor, working full time for the last seven years at our local High School. As the previous years could be described as the best of times and the worst of times, so can this year. We continue to struggle with creating an identity in our community and an end road into ongoing ministry in the lives of non-churched people in and around Champaign/Urbana. Our vision is to build a bridge so that others can experience God's love and become a part of the New Day Dream. Our goal for this year is to continue to develop relationships that God can use to introduce people to Him, see people growing in Him and continue to work towards me moving out of the bi-vocational ministry.

CHRISMAN

Members and Friends of the 2012 Illinois District Assembly:

God blesses the Chrisman Church of the Nazarene congregation for their faithfulness. While it has been a somewhat turbulent year with a pastoral change and other developments, the esprit de corp remains strong and hopeful. Throughout the year the strongest focus has been small groups meeting on both Wednesday nights and Sunday nights. Several new members joined the church. A family new to the church is attending regularly, a new baby joined our worship (she even shares her vocal praise), and a pastoral time for kids started during Sunday morning worship.

As pulpit supply pastor I preached 70 times, led in one small group 42 times, shared in a monthly senior adult fellowship, and made 8 hospital visits.

A new pastoral candidate has accepted a call to Chrisman Nazarene and the people are excitedly anticipating his coming as well as that of his family. May the Lord of All be glorified in the days ahead as the congregation seeks to know and follow His will.

CLINTON FIRST

In Galatians 5, the Apostle Paul gives us a taste of the fruit of the Spirit; that well known list of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self control. We often think of these as a list of Christian virtues, characteristics which good Christian people should strive to exhibit. To be sure, these are the kind of attitudes and practices we would expect to find among disciples of Jesus. However, I think we sometimes become so enamored with the list itself that we rush over Paul's chosen metaphor for this list without giving it much thought. That is to say, I think it is significant that Paul calls these qualities "fruit of the Spirit".

Consider how a fruit tree goes about bearing fruit. An apple tree doesn't try really hard to bear fruit. Rather, making apples is simply what it does by its nature. It is a natural by-product of its existence as a healthy apple tree. What an apple tree does work very hard at is seeking the life giving elements which will sustain its existence. It is continually putting down deeper roots to find water and nutrients. Its branches actively seek out the sunshine needed to convert those nutrients into usable energy. One might even say that the apples tree's whole existence is consumed and defined by the search for these life-giving elements. Without these things, the tree will wither up and die. With them, it will produce fruit as an effortless out pouring of what it is by its very nature.

I think Paul means to communicate the same thing about these qualities he lists when he calls them fruit of the Spirit. As Christians, it is not our task to seek the fruit of the Spirit. We are not called to try really hard to be loving, joyful, peaceful, etc. Our task as followers of Jesus is not to seek the fruit of the Spirit but to seek the Spirit. We are to be a people who are continually becoming more deeply rooted in the Word so that we might drink from streams of living water; a people continually branching out in the ways of the Spirit. One might even say that our whole existence as the people of God should be consumed and defined by this single task of seeking the Spirit. For without the Spirit, this tree will shrivel up and die. With the Spirit, it will produce the Spirit's fruit as an effortless out-pouring of what it is by its very nature.

What I'm saying here is nothing new. However, my confession is that as much as I have recognized this on an individual basis, I have failed to fully grasp its significance for us as a church body. As I look over the goals and emphases we have had in past years, I recognize that in many ways we have sought the fruit of the Spirit rather than the Spirit. We have focused on things like outreach, discipleship, serving others, and greater inter-generational fellowship. These are not bad things. They are, in fact, very, very good things. They are precisely the kind of fruit we would hope to exhibit as the Body of Christ. However, our first task, really, our only task as the Church is to seek the Spirit and trust that Christ will build his Church. Only then will we produce the kind of fruit we were created to produce as the people of God.

In the year to come, we are committing to seek the Spirit by prayer and fasting. Fasting is a way of humbling ourselves before God, a confession of our complete dependence upon God. We are saying that we hunger and thirst for God's righteousness more than we hunger for our next meal. Additionally, we are giving greater priority to times of corporate prayer. Through prayer and fasting, we are committing to seek the Spirit so that the Spirit's fruit might grow among us as the body of Christ to the glory of God the Father.

COLLINSVILLE GOOD SAMARITAN

This is my second report to the congregation as senior pastor. It is gratifying to reflect on all that God has been doing among us these past two years. Upon arriving to the congregation in May 2010, the summary findings of the 2008 Church Health Assessment provided by New Church Specialties became our church leaders' guide for identifying three specific areas to focus our attention: 1) Becoming a significant resource to our community 2) Developing healthy relationships within the church, and 3) Leadership development. Other major concerns listed in the Assessment included addressing the realities of an aging campus/facility in need of much repair as well as consistent decline in attendance every year from 2004 to 2009. Below are some of the major accomplishments from these past two years (May 2010-April 2012) together:

1. In the winter 2010 the church board prayerfully established our mission statement, which has become our guide for the 'focusing process' and strategic ministry planning as church leaders.

2. The Common Ground (home group) ministry launched in January 2011 to help foster caring relationships and deeper discipleship among us.

3. This past year great strides have been taken toward becoming a resource to our community, including our congregation taking over a dying tutoring program at Collinsville Middle School, giving leadership to a city-wide "Collinsville Loves Joplin (MO)" project after the tornado, significant involvement in the city ministerial alliance's food pantry, and our youth leaders' involvement in a city-endorsed program to provide a safe environment for the community's youth.

4. A trimester ministry leader forum ('The CORE') affords opportunity for encouraging, equipping, and communicating with all lay leaders together. This also has become a prime platform for health assessment discussions.

5. We welcomed Sharon Autenrieth to our pastoral staff to give oversight to the area of discipleship/education.

6. Our campus has received a minor facelift with new paint to many rooms and clear signage for first time visitors.

7. We have enfolded 58 people, representing 24 households, into our fellowship since May 2010.

8. 22 people have professed Christ as Savior through baptism these past two years.

9. An annual "Faith Promise Weekend" event was established to help equip the congregation to participate in both a passionate and educated manner in the global ministry efforts of the Church.

10. A campus assessment team is currently working to help determine a long-term plan for our campus/facility needs.

Looking back, it's evident God is for us. As we look ahead, there is reason to be incredibly optimistic. As we look to the future, three priorities are abundantly clear.

1. PRAYER must become the number one priority of our church - of every ministry - of every believer. We can do nothing apart from the Presence and power of Christ. We will never be missionally effective apart from becoming a prayerful people.

2. We must make greater strides to intentionally DISCIPLE believers. Spiritual immaturity leads to misunderstanding, divisions, and apathy. As we grow in Christ we grow in effectiveness as ambassadors of the Gospel. Spiritual formation is the work not just of a few called leaders, but is the mandate of all believers. Only when we "grow up" as disciples can we expect to "grow up" as a church.

3. This is the year for us to develop and begin to communicate a clear, long-term vision for our campus/facility. In addition to a lack of necessary fellowship and education space, the building is in need of more immediate maintenance issues including a new roof, new windows, and exterior painting.

No doubt, this will require considerable sacrificial stewardship from many.

- We adopted two pastors and their families at Christmas.
- We have provided Ministry Safe video training for our Youth, Children, Daycare, and Upward sports workers.
- We have created a Children’s Ministry Team of Directors with Joslyn Keathley focusing on Infant-Kindergarten and Justin Neufeld (our current Recreational Director) focusing on children in 1st-5th grades.

DECATUR OAK GROVE

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Member and Friends of this Assembly, It is my honor and privilege to be submitting my first report as the pastor of Oak Grove Church of the Nazarene. It has been a year marked by growth and learning, but it most definitely has been a good year!

This August, we had a great VBS program, which was able to effectively reach out to children both in the church as well as those who are unchurched. This was followed by back-to-back Sundays in which we had the opportunity to reach out to both parents and children through a VBS awards day, as well as a "Back to School Sunday".

In the Fall, as well as in the Spring, Oak Grove hosted Evangelists for a time of powerful revival. In both revivals the Spirit's work was evident and marked by responses at the altar and conversion, the fruits of which we are still seeing today.

Along with the Spirit's work within the hearts of the congregation, the Lord has also provided for work to be done on the facilities of the church. This year saw great improvements including a complete renovation of the parsonage, a beautiful new floor for the front of the church, as well as many other small upgrades.

This year has been marked by sense of excitement and anticipation for what the Lord will do in and through this church. We continue to look forward to what lies ahead as we sense the Spirit of God guiding our church.

It is an honor and a privilege to pastor the saints of Oak Grove. Looking forward to what God has for us we, "press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called (us) heavenward in Christ Jesus."

DECATUR PARKWAY

Dr. Toler, Dr. Spruce, Members and Friends of this Assembly:

Praise God for His faithfulness and for every accomplishment this year. God has blessed and He is still blessing. Praise His name!

The combined choirs of Trinity, Oak Grove, and Parkway presented the Christmas musical "One Quiet Night" directed by Pastor Ron Black. Thanks to the choirs and Pastor Ron Black for making this event a time of blessing, worship and praise.

On the Sunday following the musical the Children's Department presented a program entitled "The Christmas Puzzle" directed by Kim Byrne. The Christmas story was presented in a fun way by the children and well received by all attending. Thanks to the Children's Department and to Kim Byrne.

In the spring 12 of Parkway's people ventured on another Work & Witness trip to Florida at the Missionary Village in Bradenton. God certainly was with the team as they traveled to Florida and back to Illinois. Thanks David Bailey and the Parkway W & W Team!

In the fall of 2011 Parkway hosted Dr. Bob and Jennifer Wilkerson in revival services. Every service was filled with great music and Biblical preaching and the presence of the Holy Spirit. People sought God at the altar and found help for their needs. Bob and Jennifer Wilkerson are being used of God. Praise God for His faithful presence.

In April of 2012 Parkway hosted the District Prayer Encounter with Corey Jones. The mighty presence of God was there and touched each one present in a special way. Parkway has certainly been blessed because of that service.

A special thank you to Shari Tapscott for all she does in the church office and for being a wonderful helpmate in ministry and a great wife in our home.

I love the Lord Jesus today and desire to grow in Him and serve Him faithfully. My prayer is that the Holy Spirit's presence will overflow in our hearts and touch others around us with the Good News of Jesus.

DECATUR TRINITY

Greetings in the Name of the Lord from Decatur Trinity Church of the Nazarene, Every year it seems we are able to look back and see how God has been with us. This year is no exception. Our attendance has maintained the same number in morning worship and we have also grown in Sunday School. Our giving, as well, stays strong as our people prove over and over with tangible evidence that they love God by opening their pocket books.

It seems that the love of God has made itself known by the way our church family loves each other. If someone in our number has a need, there is no shortage of people stepping up to meet the need. This has always been the way of Trinity-ites and it has been made more obvious in April when this pastor suffered his own physical battle. While I was in the hospital and later at home, recovering from the effects of a stroke, the board saw to it that my salary was paid, that the pulpit was filled, and that my lawn was mowed. All I had to do was just get better. After missing four Sundays, I was able to get back to my pulpit and share the Word with my people, praise the Lord!

This past year, we have had a good VBS, a good Revival with Larry and Tamla Leckrone, good times of fellowship in our fellowship hall, good services of communion, good Mothers Day and Fathers Day services, a good Maundy Thursday service, a good Christmas Day service, and generally good Sunday Morning services all year long where the presence of God was felt and the Word was preached. We spent about a half a year in the Book of John, detailing all that Jesus did and still does, and all that he is. This has been one of the most rewarding experiences I have ever had as a pastor. And it all comes down to John 14:17 when Jesus said that his disciples knew the Holy Spirit because He had been with them and will be in them. The Book of John is centered around getting his disciples from the "with" where they watched Jesus do his works and said that Jesus was wonderful; to the "in" where the Spirit of God lived in them and they participated in the works of Jesus, not merely watched Jesus do his works. I believe Trinity Church of the Nazarene is making the transition from the 'with' to the 'in.' We want more than merely being with Jesus and watching him do his thing, we want him in us and we want to do his thing.

So now we must ask ourselves, "Is it enough?" Is it enough to watch Jesus do for us and not see ourselves do for others? Is it enough to love each other and take care of each other? Shouldn't we show this love and this message of hope in Jesus to those outside the OIKOS of our church? In 2012 and 2013, our challenge remains to move beyond ourselves and take Jesus to others. Pray that all our churches make that move.

DECATUR WEST SIDE

DR. J. K. WARRICK, DR. JIM SPRUCE, MEMBERS, AND FRIENDS OF THIS ASSEMBLY:

THIS WILL BE MY FIFTEENTH REPORT AT DECATUR WEST SIDE, AND MY THIRTY SECOND AS A NAZARENE PASTOR.

As I reflect back on this year it has been a year of healing and coming together so the church can look to the future. During this past fiscal year I was making plans to retire. At the end of April I made it official and retired. So it had been my goal and hope to get the people ready spiritually and emotionally. I wanted the church to be healthy and ready for a new opportunity and vision. Though they were not aware of my plans I started preparing the church as I preached, lead, and met with them on a social level and during board meetings. I wanted to have things prepared for the new pastor and family as much as I could. Many good things have come together this past year that will make West Side stronger for the future. From where I sit their potential looks good.

I am proud of the people and their talents at West Side. Here is just one area where God is blessing. Our youth department continues to grow with Dave and Julie Marler as their leaders. Our quizzing teams continue to lead the way on the District. They have become hard to beat, but more important is how they are learning God's Word. Our youth are represented well at the District level and Regional in Celebrate Life. Many new teens continue to come.

This report reflects what God is doing at West Side and the people that make up His great church. A special thanks goes to Russ Burch our Minister of Music who has lead our music and worship team. I thank Dan and Janet Snyder who are now in charge of our Naz. Thrift Shop as it continues to show great signs of growth. I want to also take this time to thank my wonder wife who has been my faithful mate and great pastor's wife to the people for these last 31 years. Then I want to thank the Lord for being my Savior and my Redeemer. The responsibility of being a pastor has changed over the years, but God has given me strength and wisdom to remain faithful to His call on my life. "To God Be The Glory For Great Things He Has Done."

DU QUOIN

This will be my fifth report to the DuQuoin Church of the Nazarene. Many have been led to the Lord through personal evangelism. We are beginning to see the results of our efforts at the DuQuoin Church. It has been 5 years of traveling over 400 miles per week. I have preached faithfully each Sunday along with attending a Board Meeting once a month and extra calling times. I have conducted one wedding and two funerals. We have filled in at the Laclede Church of the Nazarene on Sunday evenings at the 6:00 P.M. service for the past 3 years with a weekly Bible Study. Truly He has been with us throughout these long distant travels.

We have always prayed that God would bring the increases when we work and do what we can for Him. Both churches have made us feel like a part of their families as we have asked God to use us in our concern for their spiritual growth. Our churches show their appreciation and love for us and we are very proud to be called their pastor and wife. Joan has always been the biggest part of our ministry! Her gift of music is always a great asset and blessing.

We still consider our involvement in the Church of the Nazarene a special privilege and honor, even though we are in retired status. God has blessed us abundantly in these 45 years of ministry. We look forward to another year of serving Him at DuQuoin and Laclede as God lead us. Our prayer is to seek those who are lost and bring them into a new life in Christ.

DUPO BLUFFVIEW CHRISTIAN CENTER

This past year has probably been the most difficult year for me in ministering. Many changes have been taking place including difficulties with our finances, or I should say the lack of adequate resources. It is so difficult when those needing help and the church does not have the resources to provide that help. Also in this past year I have stepped up the call to holiness of God's people in this local church, and some have felt uncomfortable and decided to leave the church. However, those still in attendance have made the commitment and we have actually had a net gain in attendance. So even though we lost a few, we have gained a more committed, spirit filled congregation.

Probably the most difficult decision of the year was to call all members and associates to an overall church meeting to express my concerns of the lack of commitment, both financially and in attendance. This meeting, praise be to God, has brought us closer together and a renewed commitment.

Personally God has laid a new ministry vision upon my heart that I have already begun forming together, which is independent of the local church, however the church will benefit by helping develop those the ministry helps in their spiritual needs.

I am once again disappointed that the local church has not been able to participate in the financial obligation to the district, but we were barely able to survive financially ourselves. I truly hope this can change for this upcoming year, and I have committed it to the Lord and challenged the congregation to find a way to meet these obligations.

As our economy continues to put a stranglehold on all of us I pray that God will touch and convict the hearts of our leaders to turn from error of their ways, and turn to God. I believe that what this country and even the world is facing is not a financial crisis, but a spiritual crisis.

God Bless this country and all of our ministries.

EAST ST. LOUIS RUSH MEMORIAL

I am pleased to submit my sixth report to the District as pastor of the Rush Memorial Church of the Nazarene. God continues to bless our efforts as we build relationships with a community that seems to have lost all hope in having any kind of relationship with a loving, merciful, and forgiving God.

God, through our compassionate ministry has made a way for us to reach out to the homeless community and all others who are in need, to build relationships with them to lead them to a personal relationship with Him. Our church has and always will be a beacon of hope for those who are lost to find their way back to salvation, a gift that only comes through Jesus Christ.

God continues to bless our church, as we faithfully serve Him. This past year God blessed our Thanksgiving Community Dinner, with a multitude of people who came to share the love of God with us. We were blessed to receive donations from people throughout the Metro-East area who wanted to show love to those in need. By far, this past year was the largest dinner we have had the pleasure of hosting at our church.

In our Bible study and prayer meeting we continue to pray and search the Scriptures for the truths of God's Word as it relates to each of us living a life that will glorify and please Him. God continues to bless our efforts as we seek to glorify Him each and every day.

As we continue to build bridges in the community through our compassionate ministry, we leave the confines of our church walls every Thursday to go out on the streets to take the Gospel of Christ to people who will never enter the doors of a traditional church. We have entered our eleventh year of ministering to people who live on the streets. God has allowed us to build relationships and trust with the people we come in contact with. We truly believe people will be saved through this ministry God has given us.

God has allowed our church doors to remain open for twenty-five years. Some people have asked, "How are we able to keep the doors open?" It is by the grace of God and the faith we as a congregation have in a loving God who is worthy to be praised. Although we are a small congregation, God has empowered us to reach out to the surrounding community with His Word and His love to plant and water so the Holy Spirit can bring people into a personal relationship with Him.

I'm reminded of Gideon, in the book of Judges. God told Gideon he had to many men, take them down to the water and he would separate them. God did this, so the other nations would know it wasn't the number of men Gideon had that would give him the victory it was God. Having a small congregation we realize it's not about the number of people we have, it's about the presence of God empowering us through the Holy Spirit to do the work He has given us to do. In God's time the people will come, all we have to do is continue to lift Him up.

We faithfully believe people will be saved here at Rush, as God allows our lives to show evident of the hope we have in Him, we pray people will want the same thing we have a personal relationship with Him, that leads to eternal life for us.

EDGEMONT GRACE

I am pleased to present my ninth pastor's report to the Illinois district. It has been my privilege to serve the people of Edgemont Grace for another year and to thank God for this blessing as well. This year it has been my goal to see the people of God grow in their knowledge and mature in their understanding of His word. To this end, we have instituted the use of new Bible study curriculum for our Wednesday night study. This curriculum consists of study notes and questions requiring considerable time reading and comprehension of God's word.

Last fall, we rented a 15 passenger van to travel to Sikeston Mo. for a day of fun, relaxation and dining at Lambert's Restaurant, home of the thrown rolls. Our purpose for this trip was to create a time of fellowship outside our formal services at the church. This year we are planning a trip to the Myny Opera to attend the performance of Joseph and his Technicolor Dreamcoat. This will provide us with another opportunity for fellowship and to visit one of the interesting sites around the Metro St Louis area.

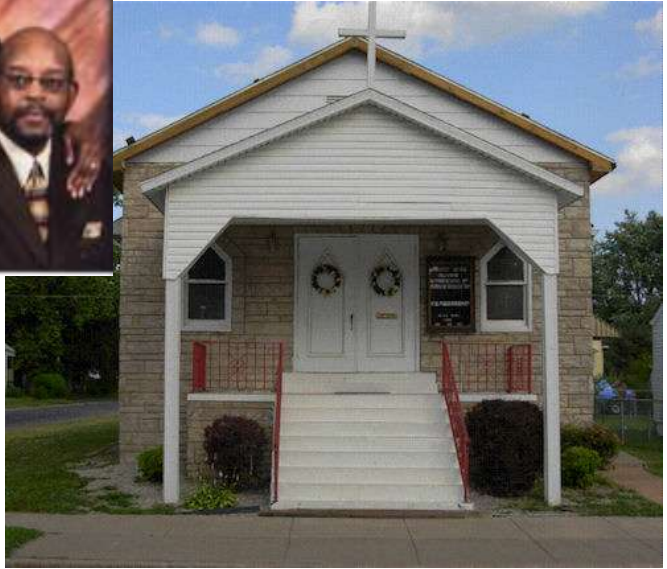

On a more somber note, one of our long time members and trustee, Bro. Rayfield Van, II, was called home to be with the Lord. His departure leaves us with a mixture of joy and sadness. However, as a pastor I have been pleasantly pleased to see how many of our congregation has surrounded his widow to offer assistance and encouragement along with their prayers.

From a financial standpoint, while our overall income has been reduced, by God's grace we have been able to meet all of our district and general church obligations. We were able to overpay the World Evangelism Fund to the level of 300% over our requirement. Our late pastor emeritus had a heart for missions and the work of missionaries. Thanks to a memorial service to commemorate what would have been his 95th birthday, we were able to make an additional contribution above our customary Easter and Thanksgiving offerings. God continues to show His Faithfulness to Edgemont Grace and we thank Him for all His goodness.

FAIRFIELD FOUNTAIN OF LIFE

This is my 40th report as a pastor in the Church of the Nazarene. My 28th report to the Illinois District, and my 4th report for Fairfield Fountain of Life Church. God is working in wonderful ways to build this church to be an eternal blessing for God's glory! His people's faithfulness is to be admired. They won't give up. New people have come our way: Janice & Jerry, Susie & Bill, Tina King, Steven, Randy Joey & Alisha and Little Attie and more. Glory To God!

New Joyous Spirit! There is a sweet spirit in our church. God is faithful. New activities to come: Special projects, special music and action to bind us together for God's glory and giving us victories in our mist. Glory To God!

HIGHLIGHTS

1. Easter 2012: Out attendance was 35. Sunrise service and special Easter service. Our Easter offering goal was raised in one day. Mother's Day we had 29 in attendance with 14 mothers and 5 children. Our church is growing. We are a part of the Illinois District in giving to missions - paid in full. ONU - paid in full. P&B - paid in full. District Budget - paid in full. In spirit to Glory To God!

2. Projects and Chorus: A lot of work and help has been done by the children of our members. Donny Pollard and Steve and Rick French are taking interest in our church and are catching our Vision to establish our church for the cause of Christ! Look what has been added: our new kitchen project is completed, included is a new super stove, kitchen cabinets, sink and new refrigerator. Glory To God. New ceiling fans in sanctuary - so strong it blows the pastor's notes away! - not sermon notes, they are secured in the Word. Fund raising projects to be able to remodel our bathrooms. Glory To God.

3. Meal of Blessing: Wednesday evenings at 5:30. We serve a meal for everyone who will come from Fairfield. 24 to 30 in attendance and fried chicken night - 46. We are seeing new people joining us on Sunday from this special new small group. Glory To God.

4. Blessed with new music: We have no pianist yet. God has blessed with the music from the Choral Club. One of the care packages had Everlasting Praise 3. Wow! What a blessing! And, Ashes To Fire came our way by Centralia Church donation. Thank God for Sandy Humphrey who has provided music on discs several times this year. A special gift came in the mail from the Pittsfield Church. It was a Godsend. We used it for the work of the Lord. Thank God! We know we are not out here on our own, others see and care. Thank you for every prayer and help in our adventure to establish Fairfield for God's glory. Glory To God.

5. Finances: We have had a transitional year in finances. Lost some but gained others. We are seeing God's work in this area with a little increase. $22,868.00 so we praise the Lord. All bills paid. Glory To God. All Budget paid. Glory To God. He is helping us as we charge on.

God is not through with the Fountain of Life yet! One of my favorite songs is "Don't Give Up." That's my desire for this church.

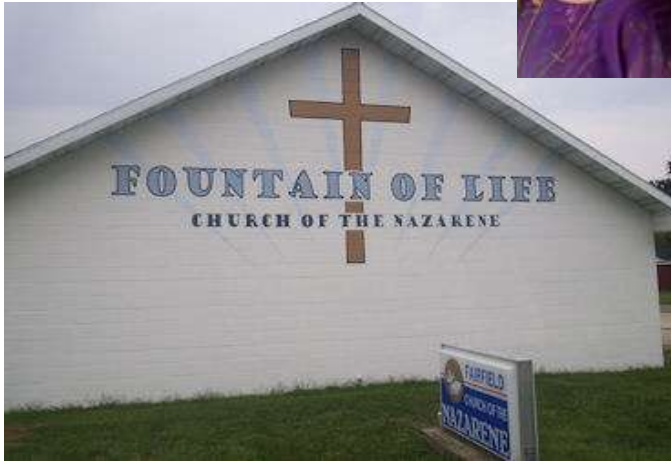

It has always been my part to pray and seek God's divinity. Yes, to go to a church. This time I am locked in a prayer for my replacement. I believe God sent Bro. Mike Ice to DuQuoin....but I had no part in that. Yet, I am asked to pray for one to carry on this great church quest. I wonder if our DS has been listening to my sermon. I shared you want to lay down your job? Then replace yourself.

I am asking God to help us as we retire that God will be interested for the Fountain of Life, by giving them a young pastor to lead them on. So I continue to pray for a new pastor for Fairfield. Join me!

FAIRVIEW HEIGHTS PARKVIEW

I offer greetings to the members of the Illinois District Assembly with my Pastor's Report for the Parkview Church of the Nazarene.

This past year Parkview began a self-study/review of all church ministries. This review is helping us in making some needed changes on a slow-but-sure basis, desiring to respect everyone as much as possible. The changes have been well-received by some while others are understanding but hesitant. We will continue this process in the coming year.

Encouraging signs:

- It has been rewarding to see a number of young adults make a deeper commitment to the life of the church in faith and in personal involvement. This is one of the changes that had been desperately needed at Parkview.
- The ability to establish a College Career Sunday School Class that has been an area of need in our church for a number of years. The early signs are very encouraging with a teacher who feels called to reach this age group and their response to his ministry.
- The mature saints of God continuing to be faithful and supportive in a changing world
- A more committed prayer ministry
- A more active choral ministry
- An active and growing Youth Ministry under the leadership of Tim Sprinkle
- Faith and trust in God in facing the challenges of the modern day church
- The positive overcoming the negative
- The accomplishment of needed building and property updates

Personally I continue to be obedient to God's call in preaching and teaching of the Scriptures and leading the Church in worship, service and evangelism. I have also served in my community and on the Illinois District in the following areas:

- Completing a two-and-a-half year service as President of the Fairview Heights Clergy Assoc.
- Hosting a weekly prayer time for fellow clergy members in the community
- A member of the District Board of Ministerial Studies
- A member of the District Advisory Board
- Serving as the Metro East Zone Pastors Coordinator

May the Lord be honored in all endeavors of the Parkview Church of the Nazarene.

Respectfully,

Jay Shoff, Pastor

FLORA

So often in the church we can be like a child taking one of mom's clay pots, filling it with gravel and sand from the driveway, inserting a seedling in it, deluging it with water, then standing over it insisting, "Grow little seed, grow!" But the church is more like a garden: improve the soil in which the church is planted, and it will grow.

Several months ago, the Flora congregation took a church health survey measuring the eight key qualities of our church. To our surprise and dismay, the area we rated lowest was "loving relationships." Now, It's not that we dislike each other: it is more that outside of worship services, we have had little interaction with one another. We've been more like individual sojourners than traveling companions on the journey home.

With the help of our newly formed "ReVision Team," we spent much of the last year seeking to improve the quality of our Christian fellowship. We've increased opportunities for fellowship after various worship services. Once a month, the pastors invite the congregation to food and fellowship after the Sunday evening service. Adult activities are constantly being planned. More greeting and testimony times have been inserted in worship services, and more opportunities to pray for one another. Ladies' Bible studies and men's breakfasts have been implemented with great success.

While at times our endeavors could be characterized as "three steps forward, two steps back," there seems to be a growing warmth in our fellowship – more laughter, more openness in sharing needs, more fun, more sharing in ministry.

Currently, our ReVision Team is reading together Steve Sjogren's Conspiracy of Kindness as we seek to cultivate improvements in yet another quality of our church soil: "need orientated evangelism."

GLENVIEW

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Members and Friends of the Illinois District. This is my 32nd report for Glenview and my 38th report to the Illinois District.

Glenview is a remarkable church. As Pastor, I am blessed to serve with these wonderful lay people who want to see God move in our midst. As I write this, I sense “the moving of God” as do others. I am excited to see just what God has in store for us in this new year. I am still in love with our Glenview people. I consider it an honor to be their Shepherd. I know it is where God wants me to be.

One of our wonderful achievements during this year was becoming a debt-free church. We all sense a great accomplishment for the Lord.

We had a marvelous revival with Dr. Bob and Jennifer Wilkerson. There were many spiritual victories as a result of the anointed preaching of Dr. Bob and the talented, spirit-filled singing of Jennifer. The reason for God's blessings was three-fold: 1) Prayer; 2) Service; 3) Obedience. Three weeks of extra prayer meetings precipitated this revival. We highly recommend this couple.

As one of our out-reach ministries, we will have our tenth Classic Car Show June 16.

We are living out Romans 15:5-6 which says: “May the God Who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the Lord and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

GODFREY

Dr. Warrick, Dr Spruce,

One of the results of Refocus of last year has been the church becoming more involved in the community in which it resides. The first area of involvement has been with the grade school just a short distance away from the church. Several individuals from the church are taking part in volunteer activities such as reading to different classes, helping out during the schools Play Day, basically helping out where help is needed.

Another area of involvement is the Door to Door introduction ministry where individuals are going door to door leaving information about the church at homes that surround the church.

Our goal for this year is to develop more ways for our church to become involved and interact with the community in which it resides.

GRANITE CITY CTM

Greetings in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ!

It is my pleasure to report for the second year on our organic church ministry in Granite City. I can say with confidence that Jesus still transforms lives and is still Lord of his church!

This year we have had the awesome experience of witnessing real life transformation and real discipleship take place. Three people have made the journey from being foreign to the church to putting their faith in Christ and following Him daily. They have solidified their testimony by standing before friends and family and being baptized. Their continued desire to follow Jesus is evident in participation in intense, ongoing discipling relationships as well. These new disciples are being transformed, and are seeing kingdom influence in their families, relationships, and workplaces. The Kingdom of God is advancing!

The foundation of our ministry is our discipling relationships – Life Transformation Groups. It brings me great joy that almost all of our people are actively engaged in one of these groups. Even our 5 year old daughter started her own LTG. Discipleship is so easy, even a child can do it!

There is nothing more rewarding than seeing firsthand the power of Jesus transform a life. And we are so grateful that the Lord has given us the opportunity to see just that. It has increased our own faith as Jesus has shown again and again that He is still on the throne!

Respectfully submitted,

Timothy Young Jr.

HARRISBURG OASIS COMMUNITY

Dr. Warrick,
Dr. Spruce,
Members and Friends of the District Assembly,

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that I bring my 30th Report to the 69th Illinois District Assembly and my sixth Pastor's Report on behalf of Oasis Community Church of the Nazarene, located at the gateway of the beautiful Shawnee National Forest, in Harrisburg, Illinois.

On this occasion, I am reminded of the words of the servant of God who had been beaten, bruised, battle-scarred, stoned, falsely accused, imprisoned, shipwrecked, and even left for dead; And as the Apostle Paul was being questioned by King Agrippa in regards to his motives, message, and mission, it was then Paul responded: (Acts 26: 19, 22) "O King, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision..." and "...Having obtained help from God, I continue unto this day."

Now, let me say that throughout all the years of ministry, God has proved himself faithful and sufficient for the journey. And further still, allow me to emphasize the fact that I have never served as pastor of a bad or difficult church. For somehow, in spite of the pastor, God has always allowed us to experience and enjoy his presence, power, provision, productivity, and people.

However, I must say that as a result of what the Lord is doing at Oasis, it is unquestionable that God has saved the best unto the last:

1. His constant abiding presence is in every service.
2. People are testifying that they are sensing the Lord's special presence when they arrive on the grounds.
3. The good news of His working is spreading throughout the community and the Lord is bringing people that I didn't even know existed.
4. Our altars are used in almost every service by those experiencing the saving, sanctifying, and sustaining grace of God.
5. The financial support, per capita, is stronger than I have ever witnessed, and I have not yet preached on tithing. People are simply responding to the promptings of the Lord and giving from the heart.
6. The sense of "Oneness" is a direct result of the moving of the Spirit of the Lord.

Perhaps the songwriter says it best:

When you walk with the Lord, in the light of his word, what glory he sheds on our way;
While we do his sweet will, He abides with us still, And with all who will trust and obey.
Not a shadow can rise, not a cloud in the skies, But his smile quickly drives it away;
Not a doubt nor a fear, not a sigh nor a tear, Can abide while we trust and obey.
Trust and obey, for there's no other way, to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey.

HIGHLAND

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce and the Illinois District: Greetings from the Highland New Start Church.

What an honor to be submitting my fifth report as Pastor of the Highland Church. What a great band of God's people I get to be a part of.

This has been another year that has not gone the way I planned or intended. In spite of many setbacks, it has been a good year. We have not seen much growth, but we have seen change. One of our core key couples moved to Canada and for some reason, they do not want to commute back and forth for services. They seem to think the drive is too long. God is so good! They were gone a few weeks when God provided another key couple that moved to Highland from West Virginia and they also felt that it was too far for them to commute back each week to their home Church for services. Isn't God good!

I read a person should write their schedule in pencil and give God the eraser. I have claimed that as my policy and I must say it has served me well. Takes a lot of the stress away and things seem to work out just fine.

We are still in the month by month rental facility and it is suiting us very well. I can't wait until we out grow it. That would be a good problem. Our ladies have gotten together and repainted the interior and we have been able to purchase some new chairs and tables which make the place really look a lot nicer.

We are still encouraged that we are going to impact the greater Highland area for the Lord. We are doing what we know to do and just waiting on the Lord's timing and guidance for the increase. The fields are white with the harvest and we have been praying for more workers and we know, in the Lord's timing, they will come.

Jacksonville (CTM)

It has been an exciting and challenging year getting to know the people of Jacksonville. The group that has formed there is small but doing well; we continue to meet people in the community...some who have visited the group..others have joined with us. Our meetings are very informal, very real and very much saturated in Scripture. We share the Bread of Life over Coffee and Sandwiches, but The Holy Spirit's presence is evident. Although we meet in a Restaurant, we are very much becoming a Church, not by man's definition..but by Scriptural definition. We have no building and no budget but we have Jesus, and His Spirit is uplifting and holding us as He shapes us into the Body of Christ in that place. In addition to the continued formation of our Organic Church, we have formed the j4J (Jacksonville for Jesus) Task Force, which is made up of Pastors and laymen from existing Nazarene Churches in the Jacksonville area. Some wonderful ideas are being shared and prayed about, the result of which will be the establishment of a Nazarene Compassionate Ministry in Jacksonville. All area Nazarenes are welcome to participate and get involved in what is looking to be a wonderful and exciting adventure for and with our Lord. We look forward to all that Our Savior will accomplish in this City that He so obviously longs to reach.

With Gratitude to Him and to You,

JERSEYVILLE

This is my fifth report for the Jerseyville Church of the Nazarene. Ours has been a year of both success and disappointment. In the last six months especially our numbers have been down sharply. Our attendance has been down, and giving has been down. After nearly a year of strong Wednesday evening prayer meetings, interest in those meetings fizzled down to nothing, and so we no longer meet in the middle of the week. Though not everyone participated in these gatherings, everyone was affected by the termination of those services. When our commitment to prayer and fellowship fizzles, so does just about everything else.

As far as the good stuff is concerned, we put together a Kids Fun Day last June, which was a great success. Our teen group remains strong and active. Sunday School remains a central part of everything else we do—almost everyone involved in our church in one way or another participates in Sunday School. During our morning worship times throughout the summer of last year we did a message series that encouraged people to submit to me their questions on any topic of their choosing, excluding politics and these became the Sunday morning messages. The response was phenomenal, with topics that included marriage, homosexuality, suicide and the end times. At the end of summer we celebrated the baptism of three people. In the last two months we have challenged ourselves to paying off the mortgage on the parsonage within a year, freeing us of all debt. Thus far we have raised over $7,000 toward the cause. We also just gave our fellowship hall a fresh makeover.

In October we lost a beloved member of our church, Dean Ellis. A hero of WWII, Dean faithfully served the Jerseyville Church for many years, and helped build our current facility. Though his legacy lives on in our memory, we miss him very much.

At Jerseyville, we may not have a lot of people or funds, but we have a lot of love. We strive to love our God with our heart, soul, mind and strength, and to love one another and our community as much as we love ourselves. Our best days are yet to come.

LACLEDE

I am not accustomed to writing reports. I am not really a pastor; I'm just the guy who is available at this point in time. My father-in-law, Paul Black, was the pastor at the Laclede Nazarene church for ten years. My wife and I wanted to do what we could to keep the little church going.

The numbers are not high, but the fellowship is good. Not much has changed in the church the last decade or so. We have been going there almost three years and I have been filling the pulpit for almost a year. We don't know yet what God has planned for our little church.

We have been praying for revival and are trusting God to move. You never know what God will do; it would be just like the Lord to use a nobody like me in a nowhere place like Laclede. Let us trust Him and see what He will do. May the Lord bless all who are about the Master's business.

Sincerely,

Mark Harned

LINCOLN

So far, I'd have to call 2012 "the year of stuff." At home we've been working through the cluttered mess of stuff in our basement to decide what we need, what we want, and what we can live without. Spring cleaning day here at the church I tackled the furnace room and relieved it of some unnecessary stuff. I've recently been trying to get my shop area of the garage in order so I can start working on some long overdue projects. And just a few weeks ago, prompted by a search for a missing folder, I've taken my office apart and put it back together again, but not until I made some decisions about getting rid of some stuff that was overflowing my cabinets and drawers. It has just been stuff all year long.

Of course, stuff isn't just the physical matter that we trip over or sort through. I'm talking about schemes and dreams and agendas and problems and people and worries and bills and appointments and expectations and demands and hopes and disappointments and questions and fears and desires and, well, you get the picture. If we're not careful, stuff will consume our thoughts, eat our energy, and sap the life out of us.

Then there's that special brand we call "church stuff." Plans and programs. Ways of doing things. Old ideas. Sacred cows. Ministry envy. While not wanting to give up stuff altogether, my heart keeps telling me SIMPLER MUST BE BETTER. I know that plans and dreams aren't necessarily evil, but what if we threw off "everything that hinders" and just decided to be God's people, filled with God's Spirit, on God's mission? If that were truly the case then we wouldn't ever have to worry about failure because we would be living Jesus' dream for His Church.

Some dreams have succeeded this year: After a long season of fundraising a new roof shelters us. New sound equipment to help us hear the message more clearly. More concentrated attention to teaching and discipling and safeguarding children. Graciously extending me the chance to visit a mission field in Arizona and offer a week of service there. Meeting and exceeding the standards for giving to missions, and education and benevolence and district expenses.

However, some dreams haven't been realized: Membership and the desire to commit to membership and leadership continue to decline. Attendance statistics in worship and Sunday School are stagnant despite the fact that the Lord has brought new people our way recently. It appears we are either dying off or drifting away.

Still, we're dreaming some good things the days to come: "Crafts 'n Croissants" for our women to fellowship and serve. Dreams of something similar, though more "manly," for our men. The completion of the "Faith Park" theme for the children's ministry area. The continuation of a maintenance program to upgrade the building and property. Investing God's resources in other local ministries. Leading everyone through the Bible in 2012. Expanding our reach through social media. Even possible changes in mid-week programs. These are good dreams, but they will only be more clutter, more stuff unless they are about His dream – making disciples. For 2012 (and beyond), should God call us to jettison some stuff I pray He will also give us the grace to let go of our dreams in favor of His.

MAHOMET

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Fellow Pastors and Co laborers in Kingdom Building,

The rise in goods and status quo of incomes in our congregation has made it a challenge to focus on mission as opposed to money. However, we have much to celebrate.

We celebrate two new souls won for the Kingdom.

We celebrate individuals who received spiritual, emotional, relational and physical healing through completion of our third year of Celebrate Recovery ministry.

We celebrate the presence of the Holy Spirit moving in our worship services comforting and convicting.

We celebrate strong small group ministries helping disciples make disciples.

We celebrate God's faithfulness to meet financial needs during economic distress.

We celebrate increased ministry opportunities to the motorcycle community.

We celebrate the opportunity to offer a new chaplain service to the second largest business in our community.

We celebrate the known and unknown victories won through the work of our intercessory prayer ministry.

We celebrate the Mission of "One More Soul for Jesus."

MANSFIELD COMMUNITY

“One heart, one mind in Christ!” as described in Acts 4:32 is our commitment to work together in building the Kingdom of God by reaching out to the unchurched in our community. This has been my opening statement of my report for the several years. That is because just as the disciples had great power from God when they were of one accord, when we work together, our impact is great. We will be One heart, One mind in Christ collectively as we strive to be one with Jesus personally. As we grow closer to Him, we grow closer together. A church that keeps everyone pulling in the same direction can be a great force for God in the community.

Again this year, our Community Easter Egg Hunt was a success. Over 5,500 plastic eggs were filled with candy and prizes, and then spread out over the Village park to awaiting children carrying baskets and bags. I appreciate our church board's focus and commitment to ministry, especially Compassionate Ministries. Thirty-eight boxes filled with all the necessities for a bountiful Christmas dinner were distributed to needy families the week before Christmas and even more food was distributed this year through our food pantry.

We appreciate our ministry partners at the Mansfield United Methodist Church. This year we combine our efforts for Vacation Bible School for the fifth time. Last year was “Son Harvest County Fair: Growing the Fruits of the Spirit”, in an outreach to the community with a total of 84 children attending. Bible lessons and great music brought the children in to learn about Jesus' gifts to them. The theme this year for VBS will be a fun theme, “Veggie Tales: Pirates Who Don't Do Anything”. We are still saving our VBS materials and making them available to other churches on loan. Any church can check our website for a listing and they can also send us information on the materials they have to loan other churches. That page will soon be listed on the Illinois District website for all that choose to participate.

New ideas are always welcome for innovative ways to reach the community for Jesus. The board has a new project, “Friday Night Movies in Mansfield”. We have permission to set up screen, sound, and projector downtown by the Gazebo to show family films. Veggie Tales for the kids will likely start the evening, then other rich movies such as Facing The Giants, Flywheel, Fireproof, Courageous, and the Jesus Film, just to name a few.

Our vision for this year is to “Engage the Word”. More time with God, reading His Word, praying for His Holy Spirit to fill and guide our lives individually and as a church family. There is hope for our community. Jesus is the Hope and the Mansfield Community Church of the Nazarene can be the vehicle to spread God's love.

“I know the plans I have for you,” says the Lord, “plans not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future” Jeremiah 29:11. This is our message to the community from a praying church that cares.

MARION FIRST

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Fellow Pastors, and Members of the Illinois District, I submit to you my fifteenth report as a Nazarene Pastor and my sixth report for the people of Marion First.

I am glad to report that this past year we have witnessed new life as 5 individuals accepted Jesus Christ as their personal savior for the first time. This happened because we have begun to be intentional about the lost. Two of those people currently remain connected to our local church while the others have moved or relocated. We baptized two new believers, and saw many others receive help at our altars.

Attendance over the past year has been up in every area and we regularly see new people in worship. One of our stated goals last year was to increase our giving to denominational interests and I can report that we have done that. Though apportionments were not paid in full, we did increase giving in every apportionment even though our total income dropped. That is reflective of the faith and hope that our people have.

We have also continued to minister to those of our community through various means. From a weekly interdenominational support group to ladies prayer meetings to Williamson County Habitat for Humanity, to our church food pantry, we are doing all that we can for the glory of God.

We, like any other church have faced our share of struggles this year, but with the grace and help of God we can report that Marion First is alive and well. And we endeavor to continue to be a blessing to our great district and to our community.

Respectfully Submitted,

Pastor Bobby Parker

MATTOON EAST SIDE

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Rev. Haynes, lay and clergy members of the Illinois District: I rejoice in the privilege of sharing my 18th report as pastor of the East Side Church of the Nazarene in Mattoon.

Amid the problems of economic challenges on a national/international basis, we at East Side have come to realize that we have been living under the blessing of God. He has led us through various messengers in too many ways to enumerate.

Brian Utter was used to focus our vision in last August's Faith-Promise Rally. Our NMI Council set what we thought was a high goal for our Faith-Promise pledge. Captured by the dynamic focus shared with us, our congregation went beyond the goal that had been set. Then, the giving actually went beyond the amount pledged.

In early December, we were led in a time of real revival by Dr. Bob and Jennifer Wilkerson. As is being experienced in so many services led by the Wilkerson's, God chose to meet with us in every service in some very special ways. Bob and Jennifer were certainly God's instruments to move East Side to a higher spiritual level than we were before.

Throughout the year, we have had people receiving help at our altars in our regular services—sometimes without a formal invitation being extended.

God undertook for us in some relatively mundane things as well. After patching our blacktop parking area, we were told that we would have no parking lot in five years if we didn't do a major re-surfacing at a cost of $100,000. The Master took over, and was able to have a re-surfaced parking area for $30,000, which was paid at completion of the job.

Our south entryway on to church property was much too narrow—even for fire trucks. Our Lord again sprang into action. The County volunteered to supply some major (expensive) supplies, and we were able to supplement monies that had been set aside for this purpose over the previous several years. Once again, we were able to pay the bill in full when the project was finished.

We have already seen God's blessings on display in this new church year. We really mean it when we sing, "God is so Good. He's so good to me."

Respectfully submitted,

MATTOON REAL LIFE COMMUNITY

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, and members of the 2012 Illinois District Assembly; I bring you my first report as senior pastor of Mattoon Real Life Community Church of the Nazarene.

It has been a year of much change for our congregation, with the transition from one pastor to another, but the church continues to strive hard after our Lord Jesus. We have lost some people in this transition, however, new relationships are also being established and we have had persons recommit to being a part of the life of the congregation and the Church. Truly blessed days lie ahead of us.

Over the past months we have begun to focus the life of our church around prayer, rather than around what the next great attracting program is. The Ashes to Fire curriculum has been a part of this emphasis as we have dug into the life of Christ and the commands which he gave to his followers. We are striving to be an ASK (Ask, Seek, Knock) church and allow God to work in our congregation as He wills. It is our prayer that over the coming months and years God would draw people to himself through our congregation, and that His love would shine through us.

We have begun having weekly times of fun, fellowship, and Scripture for our kids and youth on Friday nights. While Fridays tend to be a time when families want to do something for themselves, the turnout for this time has been phenomenal. We have reached into the lives of new families and are experiencing the heart and faith of children, which is always a fresh reminder of the teaching of Christ.

We celebrated the baptism and introduction of a new member this Easter and we are so thankful that God has brought her into our midst. She is a great encouragement and testimony to the grace and love of God at work in the lives of lost souls. She represents the very group of people who live all around our church building, and she is excited about the opportunity to reach out to them and help them find the very Savior who has redeemed her life. When I see her I can't help but think of the words of "Victory in Jesus". Thank you, Lord, for healing and redeeming the lives of broken people.

Through all that is going on, our congregation remains faithfully committed to the work of the Kingdom and to answering the call of Christ to make disciples of all people. We continue to look for new ways to share the Gospel within our community and to be a beacon of love and hope for the hurting. We are choosing to accept the mission which God has placed before us and truly He will bless the efforts of his faithful servants throughout the world in the days, weeks, and months ahead.

May God be praised and glorified in the life of His congregations during this coming year.

MONTICELLO

Members and Friends of this District Assembly,

Greetings in Jesus' precious name. I'm tremendously grateful to my Lord for bringing Cindy & I to this wonderful loving church family. We have really gotten to know the folks and the community. As I write this report, we are contemplating some changes that will help us reach the world for the cause of Christ. God is giving us some really great services and some new people. We were able to lead and disciple 3 new believers this year. We are glad that God is continuing His good work in our church and we are excited about this next year. This has been a year of getting to know each other and we are looking forward to God's plan of evangelism and outreach.

We, here at Monticello COTN, are not without hope. Even though the attendance has had some decline, we continue to believe that out of the ashes, God brings living breathing human beings. I can think of a couple of people that have had their share of heartache and fear, but that has not kept us from being Christ to them. We've had 3 people come to know Christ as their personal Savior and one college age young woman baptized this year. We praise the Lord for His saving and sanctifying power.

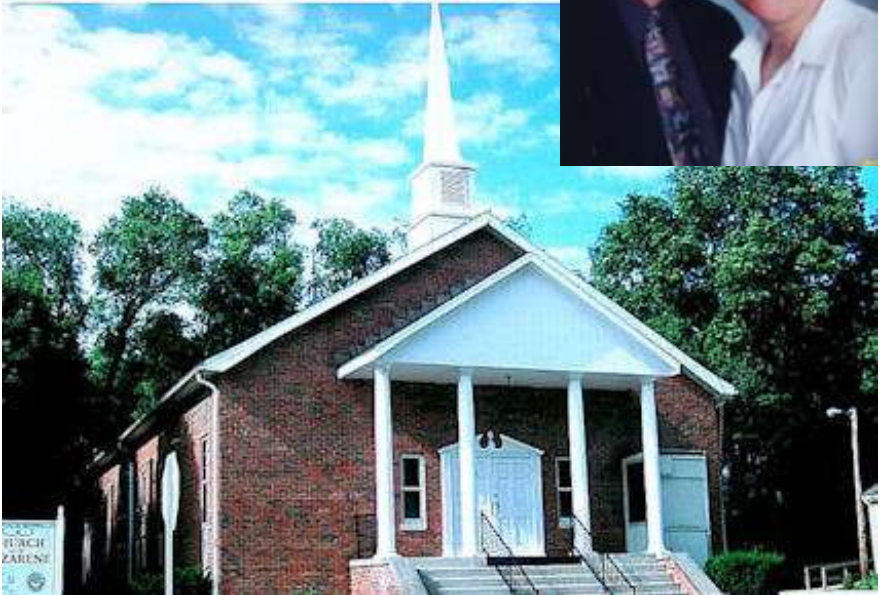

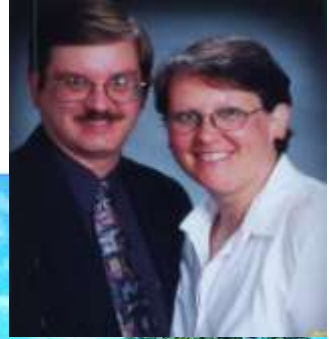

Please continue to keep our church in your prayers as we venture out into the world to be a beacon of light to a dark world.

Respectfully submitted,
Pastor John T. Barker

MOUNT CARMEL

C.R. Mitchum, A prophet and servant of and by the will of our Lord, Jesus, Christ.
To all the Saints, friends and members of the District Assembly.

While my tenure at the Mt. Carmel Church of the Nazarene has been only six months, God's Spirit is present in the hearts and souls of our people. Our numbers have been up and down, but, the average attendance is up. Continue to pray for us in this light. Our workers are dedicated and we believe in the Atoning Blood of Jesus and that only He can save us from all sin. We believe in the Second Work of Grace and that the Holy Spirit allows us to live above the sins of this World.

We have work to do. It's not a one man job, but with our congregations help and the leading of the Holy Spirit, God will prevail, souls will be gained for Heaven. He is working in our midst...Now!

We are not ashamed of the stand we take for Christ against the evils of this world. The acceptance of homosexuality, same sex marriages, fornication, cheating, lying, greed, stealing, murdering, etc., is tearing our Bible from cover to cover. Our country's elected leaders and appointed officials need our prayers and an awakening in their souls. The world needs Our Prayers. Wars, fighting and rumors of wars dominates the headlines.

This coming church year, we will continue to work for the glory of God and by HIS grace, the church will continue to be a guiding light in our community and world.

MOUNT ERIE

Dr Warrick, Dr Spruce, fellow pastors and members of this Assembly,

I bring you greetings from the beautiful countryside of Mt Erie, IL. Mt Erie is a nice, quiet, peaceful community in the lush farmland of southeastern Illinois. Trudy and I have learned a lot from the good people that God has placed in our care here and we are grateful for that. We have come to love them and the community a great deal.

The population of Mt Erie is around 75, including cats, dogs, and a few chickens, of which four are our own. That means that the average attendance of our local Nazarene church is close to 50% of the total population. That is truly amazing considering there are six churches in the immediate area. What else is amazing is that all of these churches have right around the same attendance. We continue to seek God's help in reaching out to others in our area.

I don't really have any outstanding stories to tell you from our area of missionary work. No wonderful, miraculous stories to share. Except that the true miracle in Mt Erie is that God has sustained His work here for so many years. He has truly blessed the people here for their continued faithfulness. And we continue to thank God for that.

We are preaching through the Book of Acts this year. Our goal is to become more and more like the early church that we read about there. When we hold up the early church as a model for us, we can see glaring differences and our hearts are broken because of that fact. We come to the altars and seek God each and every week and ask His help in making us the church that this community needs! Please seek Him with us.

God is blessing our services with His presence and power.

God bless you and thank you for the privilege of serving the great Illinois District in the wonderful Village of Mt Erie.

MOUNT VERNON FAITH

Dear Illinois District Comrades,

This is my 19th Report for Mt. Vernon Faith. The year began with our church basement flooded, which persisted from Easter Sunday through June. Looking back, I am now thankful all attempts seeking district assistance were unfruitful. Therefore, we relied on the Lord, persevered, and celebrated a well deserved sense of accomplishment. By Christmas Day, 2011, we had replaced all mold ridden basement walls, had it professionally waterproofed, removed and replaced all flooring, remodeled our kitchen, and bathrooms; all debt free.

Sadly, either the fear of mold in the basement, or the mold of fear in their heads, resulted in a few people leaving for finer fragrances. They missed out on some great celebrations following the mold eradication and building modifications. Follow-up contacts have revealed the real reason for leaving was horrific sin in their lives. We'll leave the LIGHT on.

Playing drums for a dance band has proven to be God's way of getting me out of my comfort zone and into places where I find opportunities to minister to lost souls. Many times I have ended our concerts with a Christian Song, prayed with people there, and welcomed some of them to our church. Imagine my joy to see the owner of the dance hall and his girlfriend attending our church regularly now.

Motto: Increasingly Christlike. Aim: Connect with people to connect them with Christ.

Do you hear His voice? "Children, go where I send you, even those at the dance need a chance."

MURPHYSBORO

This past church year the Murphysboro First Church of the Nazarene grew closer and stronger...as we experienced a few “adjustments” along the way.

Murphysboro First is indeed blessed with the strong presence of God...a body of believers focused on continuing to seek and follow God’s will...and with prompted by the Holy Spirit, moving out of comfort zones and into taking steps of faith for the advancement of His kingdom!

Revival – spiritual renewal – happens anytime we are open to and respond to His promptings. Tenured evangelist Rev. Gary Bod inspired and challenged us May 15-18, 2011 as he led us in our Spring revival. And then September 25-28, 2011 another tenured evangelist, Rev. Nathan Covington, was back with us to lead us in a Holiness Seminar “Going Farther with Jesus Than You Ever Thought Possible.” Tenured evangelist Rev. Larry and Tamla Leckrone are scheduled to be with us September 29—October 3, 2012.

I am once again thrilled to be able to report that thanks to prayer and sacrificial giving ALL budgets are once again PAID IN FULL. There is a ripple effect of God’s blessings of deeper growth and higher spirituality throughout a congregation who decide to take God up on His challenge as recorded in Malachi 3.

That was how it was this past year at Murphysboro First...a year of God moving and His people responding and trusting Him. Praise the Lord!

NEBO

Greetings in the Name of Jesus!

It is hard to believe that we are completing our 8th year of ministry here at Nebo, it has been a great time, and God continues to Bless. This has been a year of victories, we are continuing the upward trend, with 18% increase in Morning Worship, increase in Sunday School, increase in membership, a record year of giving, and all budgets paid in full for 8 years in a row, God is GOOD! We have had some great people join us here in the harvest field, young, dedicated and committed couples who have planted their roots here in the Church and the community. They are a great asset and they have blessed the church and the parsonage family with their friendship and dedication. For the first time while here at Nebo, I feel God has assembled the great base to continue the push into the community, so that we do not feel we are simply "holding it altogether" but we have become rock solid, in all areas. Oh there are still areas that need addressed and improved upon, but the Church is poised to move forward in a great way.

With the great times always comes the challenges, with Satan doing all he can to destroy families, Satan is on the attack, and I suppose that is a good thing as we have him worried!

I want to thank my good wife and children who have stood by me in the times of trials, at church and work; ever dedicated to the mission God has called us to. I testify to the fact that Jesus is my Lord and Savior, ever leading and directing my footsteps. I shall never forget the day he Saved me, Sanctified me and then Called me to preach The Gospel. My walk is up to date with nothing between me and my Lord, I praise Him for His faithfulness.

OAKWOOD

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, members of the District Assembly,

As we reflect over the blessing that God has bestowed upon us for our faithfulness, we at Oakwood look forward to a new year with eagerness and anticipation for where God leads us.

This past years victories included three of our beloved saints of the royal priesthood received their reward of eternal life entering into the presents of Jesus. Their passing was a time of rejoicing, though we feel the lost of their presents.

We continue reaching out to families in our community with food, gas, finances and prayer. The church gives God praise for all He does.

God's Blessing does flow. We believe God is not finished with us and we need to be mindful of what our Lord has in store for us. Above all we want to be ready and willing to do the Lords will here at Oakwood.

OGDEN

Dr Warrick, Dr. Spruce, fellow pastors, and friends of the Illinois District. This is my eleventh report to you as the pastor of the Ogden Church and I am happy to report that again we have seen God's Spirit move among His people in our church.

Reflecting back on my tenth year of ministry to our church I must admit it would be easy to become discouraged. By the standards often applied to measure "success" in a church we had a dismal year. Attendance is down twelve percent and giving has dropped over eight percent.

However, instead of discouragement I believe we should be encouraged! A more accurate measure of success for a community of faith is not found in numbers but in the evidence and exhibition of God's power within that church family. We have watched on numerous occasions as God healed when doctors doubted. We have seen God's Spirit move people to faith, hope, and peace when the world today is filled with doubt, discouragement, and fear! Our membership remains at an all-time high and we were blessed with two new members

Most importantly I believe that, in our struggles, many of us have grown closer to Christ. I believe collectively and individually we can claim that we leave this church year closer to God and that is the true measure of success for disciples of Christ!

I am humbled by the love of God the Ogden Church has poured out on their parsonage family. I am blessed and honored to be their pastor.

OLIVET

I bring greetings to this 69th Illinois District Assembly from the greatest congregation a pastor is privileged to serve, the OLIVET Church of the Nazarene. I am honored to represent the Olivet Church Board and congregation for my 19th report for this congregation.

We conducted our rededication of our newly remodeled sanctuary in May of last year. Rev. Doug Haynes was our guest speaker and Rev. Brian Allen from ONU provided special music for the service. Several representatives from the contractor and sub-contractor were also present for the rededication service.

We experienced an 8% decrease in our total raised for all purposes this past year but we are thrilled to report all bills are paid and the remodeling note at the bank is paid ahead in monthly installments! God is Good! We rejoiced to be able to participate in the Church of the Nazarene Global Giving Plan, giving over 5.5% to World Evangelism, 2.5% to our great ONU, over 2% to the minister's pension fund and also over payment of 5.65% to our districts funds. We were honored to have a young lady, Kaitlin Smith, receive high honors at her recent graduation from ONU. Our church was able to financially help Kaitlin with her ONU mission trip to Haiti. Even though Olivet Church is considered in the small church category, we had a great Easter attendance of 109. Our community population is just a little over 100 (counting dogs, cats and raccoons).

I am in my 2nd year of a 4-year pastoral review here in Olivet. The church board demonstrated their support to me by recently granting me a $20 weekly raise. They support the pastor by paying all of mine and Chris's health and additional supplemental life insurance. We are blessed!

A wonderful spirit is felt in our Sunday worship experiences as we join together to worship the Lord. I recently preached a series of messages on "Living a Sanctified Life" and "Basic Beliefs of our Faith".

On September 30, 2012 we will be celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Olivet Church of the Nazarene. Dr. David Felter, editor of Holiness Today, will be our special speaker and Brian Allen from ONU will provide music for the day. A 10 AM Worship Celebration and a 2 PM Anniversary Service will be held. Former pastors and all friends are invited to attend to help celebrate the little holiness church in Olivet, Illinois.

No, I am not retiring and have no plans to do so for as long as the Lord allows me to serve in the great kingdom work. I AM RICHLY BLESSED AND SAY "GLORY".

OLNEY

Although I have only been pastor of the Olney Church of the Nazarene for a few months now, I'd like to report that God is moving here in a mighty way. We have seen numeric and spiritual growth. The church has been given and received the following vision for ministry.

1. To help people seek God's will through a deeply intimate and intentional prayer life.
2. To educate people in the Word of God and teach them how to understand and correctly interpret Scripture.
3. To introduce people to the love of Christ and help them, learn how to share that love and forgiveness with others.
4. To win the next generation to Christ that they might grow strong in the Lord from an early age.
5. To define the church as a holy place of help, healing, acceptance, outreach, discipleship, and encouragement.
6. To motivate people to make the commitment to follow Jesus and serve Him whole-heartedly.

PANA FIRST

Greetings in the matchless name of our Lord.

This year marks our twentieth year in ministry and our first year at Pana First Church. Many will remember that we pastored this church from 1994-1996. I understand that it is unusual for a person to return to pastor a church where they were previously. But we are trusting in God's great ability to lead this church and we look forward to what He has in store.

This has been a season of adjustment for the church as well as for Barbara and me. It has not been an easy process for us or the church. But today I can report that the transition is past and we are moving toward a new ministry to this area.

The church chose to remodel the parsonage prior to our arriving. They spent approximately $20,000 to refurbish every room in the house as well as improvements outside the house. Barbara and I are exceedingly grateful to the men and women who sacrificed their time and energies to provide a home for us. Many hours of labor and tools were used to make an investment in this house.

We also report that members of the congregation have been saved, others sanctified, and two called to ministry during this past year. God is blessing us with His presence as the Holy Spirit anoints our services.

Already plans are in place for new programs that will reach into this community to attract people to the Church. If we can get them to the Church, we are confident that God will do the rest. Celebrate Recovery is one program that is on the agenda. There are people within the church and the community who need to find help through the freedom of this program. Habits and hang ups need to be dropped.

We are praying for a new vision and a new direction for Pana First Church. We are attempting to turn a group of people into a cohesive, cooperative congregation who will work together to impact the community for Jesus Christ.

Walter Sheets, Pastor

PARIS FIRST

It has been my privilege to pastor Paris First since early January, following the interim leadership of Rev. Robert Watson the previous eight months, as well as the capable leadership of our retiring pastor, Rev. Ron and Patty Ingram.

Although this was a year of transition, Sunday School and worship attendance is up slightly, and offerings are up twelve percent over last year. All budgets are paid in full and the World Evangelism Fund is overpaid by a considerable sum.

We featured our children on Easter Sunday with a total attendance of 112, almost double our weekly average. Some new people are coming, some spiritual victories have been won at the altar, and a recent new member was received (to report for the new year). The church is paying the way for five or six children to attend church camp at Lake Williamson. We are in the beginning stages of fund raising and planning for a new fellowship hall, and to address the need of restrooms on the main level/accessible to all. We will soon have a schematic drawing to inspire us to give.

The morale of our people seems high. We are trusting our Heavenly Father for continued blessings! I am indebted to the Lord, the wonderful people of Paris First, and to Dr. Spruce for a place of ministry and service.

PITTSFIELD

To know Christ, to experience Christ, to see Christ, to worship Christ, to become more like Christ and to be Christ-like is our prayer, passion and aspiration. Without Christ we are nothing and can do nothing for He is our very life.

In reflecting on the life of Pittsfield Nazarene for this annual report, it is apparent we are who we are by the grace of God. This grace particularly poured out on this local community nearly seventy-five years ago is seen in a clear calling to holiness, a lifestyle of sacrifice and a commitment to evangelism. My humble salute and thanks is given to those who have been faithful to Christ through the generations. As Galatians 6:9 illustrates "You have not grown weary in doing good and now you reap a harvest at an appointed time"

Therefore we lift up Christ for several moments of celebration:

- Lives seeking the Almighty consistently at the altars
- Nine baptized
- Two Spirit-filled revivals
- Nearly 200 children reached through Vacation Bible School
- Caravan ministry influencing numerous children and their families
- Quizzers who memorized God's Word and quizzed with excellence
- Worship services where God came and the Holy Spirit re-oriented the direction
- Expanding ministry to young adults
- All budgets paid with World evangelism giving at 11%
- And many miracles

The first miracle in particular of many is a lady who had cancer, a mom and grandma of a dear family in our local Church. When the cancer was realized, she was away in another state and the church began interceding in prayer to God almighty who heals. The prognosis did not look good. A couple months later she was moved to a more local hospital. The reality looked stark, yet the saints continued to pray. Just a few weeks ago, this dear one stood and testified in the House of the Lord of God's divine and complete healing. Thanks be to God.

The second miracle is of a long-time member who had cancer, a dear family member and saint of God. As well, the prognosis was not good. The saints rallied and prayed to God almighty who heals. It was an up-and-down hill journey. The journey came to the end of the temporal earthly road to the entry-way of the eternal road. Death was swallowed with everlasting life. The funeral director said, "in my forty-years of doing funerals, I have never experienced anything as powerful as meaningful as I have experienced today." The way he lived and died through Christ is the miracle.

And the last miracle is a man in his 50's who started reading the Bible. It was a gift to him by a dear friend in the Church Body. He literally read the Scripture through in less than three months, having never read it before. The Word touched the core of his heart and led him to Jesus, Who is now the Saviour of His life. The miracle is God's living Word which continues to touch and transform. Heaven rejoices.

It is all because of Jesus Christ. To know Christ, to experience Christ, to see Christ, to worship Christ, to become more like Christ and to be Christ-like is our prayer, passion and aspiration. Without Christ we are nothing and can do nothing for He is our very life.

QUINCY EMMANUEL

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, delegates and friends of this thirty-ninth assembly of the Illinois District, I am reporting for 9 months of this assembly year for Quincy Emmanuel. It is always a joy to serve in assignments where God opens doors. Many years ago I made a covenant with God that if he opened doors for ministry I would attempt to walk through those doors. In this assignment I am endeavoring to keep that vow.

A favorite scriptural encouragement to me across the years is Hebrews 10:39: "But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved." God has honored faith, sacrifice, determination and effort among the people of Emmanuel. Some significant gains have taken place:

1. A 30% gain in AM average worship attendance
2. Several new families with children attending regularly
3. 5 persons baptized including an 80+ year old
4. 3 new members by profession of faith
5. Two miracles of divine healing
6. Increased finances
7. Acceptance of challenge to give 7.5% of income to World Evangelism
8. Replacement of new roof on entire building
9. Replacement of old air conditioning in sanctuary and fellowship hall

There is a renewed sense of purpose and outreach among the congregation. Children and youth are bringing excitement and enthusiasm to a group that has been challenged in recent times. Caravans will be added this Fall to minister to children. New Sunday school classes will be established to minister to various age groups. Some additional upgrading will take place to make the physical plant more user friendly.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve at Quincy Emmanuel

RANTOUL

Dr Warrick, Dr. Spruce, members and friends of this sixty-ninth assembly of the Illinois District. This is my 33rd report for the Rantoul Church and my 38th report to the Illinois District.

Significant sacrifice and service was rendered by our congregation this year. We did not achieve all of our goals. We have committed ourselves to continued efforts to build the kingdom of God in Rantoul and signs are already evident of a season of change and growth. Despite the economic downturn and drop in numbers there were bright moments and events when the Spirit moved mightily to encourage us onward.

We are grateful for all the faithful hearts that have stood firm, keeping the faith, volunteering in service, and believing that God has more for us than we currently are experiencing. We continue to reach out to needy people and lost souls. We are touching people for Christ and seeing transformed lives. By His grace this will be the year of discipleship and growth.

God has blessed me throughout my ministerial journey with Kathy, my wife of 43 years. She is faithful love to her Lord, her family and her church.

Our families by blood and by faith are both precious. To God be the glory!

ROXANA

Members and friends of this assembly,

Today, I am bringing my nineteenth annual report to you as pastor of Roxana. In this past year, like those that preceded it, we have continued to do the ministry of Connecting People to Jesus. Here's a quick list of many of the things that occupied our time and attention:

- Lots of wonderful events, people, and programs
- Fantastic ministries extending our reach into the community
- Inspiring times and seasons in worship

A few highlights of the past year include:

- 826 children at our trunk or treat
- 1300 one weekend for our family movies'
- 2600 at our blessing of the bikes
- Record Faith Promise Commitments

Our focus for the coming year will be on prayer. Moved by the prayer seminar conducted by Corey Jones, our church has begun a Thursday night prayer meeting. We are looking forward to what God intends to do as we seek His face in a more regular, disciplined, and serious way.

In His Service,

ROYALTON

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, and delegates to the assembly,

This is my eighteenth report for the Royalton Church of the Nazarene. I want to thank my God for the extraordinary opportunity to pastor this good church. We have experienced His blessings in so many ways.

My greatest privilege has been to work with my son Tim in ministry. He serves the church as their Youth Pastor. He is doing a wonderful job. We average around 25 to 30 teens for our youth service. The greatest thing of all is witnessing the spiritual change and growth in the lives of the children, youth, and adults. I am excited about what God is doing, but even more excited about what He is going to do. I am confident that God is going to do a great thing. I believe prayer is the key to this becoming a reality. I have been so encouraged how the people have realized the importance of prayer. Even our young people are taking prayer seriously. One of our teen girls was talking with a lady from another church prior to the start of an NMI Rally and the lady expressed a need and the teen from our church said "Let's just pray right now." She prayed with this lady right there in the sanctuary before the start of the service. I was so blessed when I heard that. I am convinced that prayer is what moves the heart of God. Not that He needs to know, but that He wants to hear the voice of His children. I believe God wants us to be desperate for Him and His involvement. Every time when God's children would cry out to Him something life changing and amazing would happen. We still serve that same God.

Prayer is power!

SALEM GRACE

Psalm 100:4-5 "Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the Lord is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations."

We are praising the Lord and giving thanks for his faithfulness to our church. God continues to surprise and overwhelm us with his blessing upon our people.

I am thankful for the enthusiastic group of people that God has blessed me with the opportunity to serve alongside of. We have many gifted lay people and staff that pour their hearts into the ministries of the church.

This is my 6th year reporting for Grace Nazarene. I feel just as passionate as the day I started here. As I look forward, I find myself dreaming of what God could do through us in Salem, Illinois. I sense God creatively leading and asking us to trust him to bring those dreams to fruition. I recognize that we are a part of something special and we will continue to give him the glory for the way he is blessing us.

I look forward, with anticipation, to more bountiful/incredible/amazing years for Salem Grace.

SHELBYVILLE

Doctors, Reverends, Brothers, Sisters, and Friends:

I am happy to report for the 13th time to you how God is working in the church in Shelbyville. There is no people more blessed than those who realize they are a blessed people. We are aware and grateful for the blessings God has poured on us. There is a continuing sense of wonder that God would visit with us so regularly. The expectancy has not become common place or causing us to take Him for granted, on the contrary His blessings are increasing our appreciation for Him.

I know God is able to work in any way He chooses, but most often He chooses to work through people. The Church is full of wonderful leaders who love the Lord and are willing to give of themselves to see the kingdom advance. Pastor Bob is all a pastor could want as an associate. Our teens workers are 2nd none. We have a wonderful Missions program. Our children's work is reaching out all the time. Our Sr. adult group is more active than I am. We have a great women's Bible study. We will be starting this year "Upwards" basketball, and it all works because God is blessing people and people are blessing God with faithfulness that is making a difference.

We had a tremendous time in revival when Rev. Rosilyn Williams came prepared. She was ready, we were ready, and God was ready to spark a new fire in us. We sing a song that says "He has done great things, He has done great things....He's so good to me", that is true but we have to get rid of the past tense feeling that song has. I like better "These are the days of Elijah? God is doing great things. We see it. We are blessed and we know it. Can it get better than this?

SHERMAN

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, members and friends of the Assembly,

It is my privilege to give my fourth pastor's report on behalf of the Sherman church. As a congregation we have tried to fulfill the mission Jesus Christ gave by "Seeking His Heart" and "Extending His Hands" both to our fellow believers and to those outside the congregation. I am blessed to be able to serve with the people of Sherman Church of the Nazarene.

We have "Sought His Heart" through a continued emphasis on prayer. This has resulted in a new ministry of prayer warriors praying for the moving of the Holy Spirit during each message. A Wednesday, 6 a.m. prayer service was also started which has become a powerful force in our church. As a church we are also seeking God's heart through His Word. Sixty people (70% of our avg. Sunday morning attendance) participated in "Engage the Word" in the fall and 12 read through the New Testament in the Spring, God is transforming us by the power of His Word.

As we continue to "Seek God's Heart" He is showing us His heart for people and that we are His hands, therefore, we are compelled to "Extend His Hands" in Christian fellowship as well as in ministry. Within the church, we have had an emphasis on discipling. We have begun to ask one another the question, "who are you discipling and who is discipling you?" It has been great to see several discipleship relationships begin. We have begun to intentionally train people as disciples with the intent that they will also make disciples.

"Extending His Hands" to others, we have paid all denominational obligations plus some. But we have also tried to think "glocally" (giving locally and globally at the same time). Like when we received our Alabaster offering, we also received an offering for Lifetime Pregnancy Help Center. Though the giving to Alabaster was slightly lower, the overall giving to others was increased. Besides that there were ministries to the local nursing home, Lifetime Pregnancy Help Center, and food distribution to senior citizens and several families in our own congregation at Christmas.

We are confident that, as we continue to seek Him with all our hearts as we spend time in the Word and cry out to Him and as we continue to help each other on the journey, God is going to do even greater things to build his Kingdom in our area and bring Glory to His name.

SPARTA

The Sparta Church is thankful for all those who have mentioned and lifted up our church in prayer. I am very thankful for members and those who attend our services. I know God is watching over our church. This has been an up and down year. We lost one faithful servant through passing on to glory. Another couple has moved on for reasons unexplained.

God has still been good to the Sparta Church. Sometimes when you don't know what's going to happen the Lord gives his assurance everything will be alright. We are excited about our upcoming Bible School and each week we see our Sunday school children excited about Sunday school.

We are thankful for Dr. Spruce and his lovely wife because they have been such a help to our church. We are expecting new things because we know God is fresh and new to us every day. We ask that you keep Sparta Church in your prayers.

SPRINGFIELD FIRST

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Members and Friends of the Assembly,

This is my 30th pastor's report for the Church of the Nazarene and my eighth report for Springfield First Church of the Nazarene. This year, as a church, we have continued to strive to fulfill our rather simple mission and purpose as a church. We want to: "Love God, Love Others – within the community of believers, and Serve our World."

We are humbled and thrilled by what God is doing through the ministry of prayer, as we, as a Body of Believers, have cried out for the manifest presence of God, and we have seen Him transform lives. It begins with the pastors meeting together to pray weekly; and then a group also meets each week to pray for the pastors of the church and any needs they might have; and then our Wednesdays evenings are spent in crying out to God and interceding for others; and during the week different groups meet for prayer. God is not only hearing the prayers of His people, but He is meeting with us and saying, "Here am I."

We have and are experiencing the reality of God's promise found in Isaiah 58:9 - "Then you will call, and the Lord will answer; you will cry out for help, and He will say: Here am I."

We are just beginning to learn what it really means to pray and to experience all that God has for His people.

We experienced a tremendous "Ignite Weekend" as we put our purpose as a church into practice. We worshipped; we went into our community and did different service projects; we worked together taking care of God's house and wrote notes of encouragement; we supported "Overcoming the Ashes" in concert at a local coffeehouse and collected non-perishable food for Contact Ministries; and we showed the "Courageous" movie and many lives, those inside the church and outside the church, encountered God.

We strived to build stronger spiritual lives, stronger families, and a stronger church as we participated in an eight-week commitment of Bible reading, prayer, worship and service to others - as we looked at those things that must be "foundational" in our life if we're going to build the life God wants us to have, and to be authentic Christ-followers.

We are praising our Lord for transformed lives and for giving us a glimpse of what He wants to do through us, as a church, as the "eyes of our heart are being enlightened in order that we may know the hope to which He has called us, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, and His incomparably great power for us who believe." (Ephesians 1:18-19)

TAYLORVILLE FIRST

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, Members and Friends of the Sixty-ninth District Assembly,
Greetings in the saving and sanctifying power of our mighty three in One!

Since arriving in Taylorville last November, transition has been the theme. Beginning a new ministry. Beginning a new marriage. God has blessed me with a wonderful wife, Robbie, who like me was widowed at a young age (relatively speaking I guess). Last Thanksgiving morning Pastor Fred Prince performed our wedding ceremony. I guess that you can say that we are on our honeymoon on a number of levels! Beginning a new family. Robbie and her daughter Chandler, my son Kaleb and I are transitioning into a new family unit as well as a new church. Beginning a new culture here in Taylorville. We are praying to be used by the Lord to bring God inspired change to the culture that exists here. We have spent the last six (6) months loving people, watching people, listening to people and ultimately hearing God's vision for Acts 2 ministry here in our church and community.

To accomplish that end God gave me a ministry plan of action that I call the 5-E Ministry Plan. The plan was birthed by prayer. The plan was presented to the Church Board. The plan was cast as a vision to the congregation at our Annual Meeting. The 5-E plan for ministry was detailed in a booklet and every member and friend can clearly see the blue print of our plan for ministry at Taylorville. Sparing all the details and specifics the 5-E Ministry Plans consists of components of ministry found in the Second Chapter of Acts.

5-E Ministry Plan

- Exalting God
- Equipping People
- Engaging People
- Evangelizing People
- Encouraging People

We have specific goals for each "E" that are defined by the people that we currently have to work with. I wish that I had more space to go into all of the details here. In essence we now have a track in place for the train to run on. It's time for us to move forward personally and corporately as a church body.

Our statistics are reported on our church page. We are blessed to report to you that all budgets have been paid in full. Next year we will report numerically and financially in a timely manner now that the pastor has figured out all of this new technology!

URBANA LIGHTHOUSE

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, members, friends and colleagues of the assembly,

It is my pleasure to bring to you yet another report from the ministry at Urbana Lighthouse. We are a blessed people. After living in the hope of Habakkuk 2:2-3 trusting the Lord in His time, the blessings of Heaven are falling. We have seen new families join us and give their lives to Christ. We have seen God's healing hand in nothing short of miraculous ways. It has been a blessing to be a witness to the awesome power of the Lord in these settings. We have seen the people band together and believe in their hearts that God has a plan for Urbana Lighthouse. It is clear these people know the church doesn't exist in the structure or the framework as they continued to meet in a cramped and crowded basement dwelling, while trusting the Lord's direction for the ministry. As God always does, in His time He gave the sign that it was time to cross our Jordan River and the prayers of our people were answered. Through a childhood relationship built long ago, a building was found near the same vicinity of the basement dwelling. It was the answer to prayer we had been looking for as God reminded us of the things we had been praying for, and delivered this building, now three times the size of our old building. As we crossed our Jordan and took possession God continues to bless as attendance is on the rise. We have seen the people grow in Christ, new lives come to Christ, and we have been blessed with the continued manifested presence of the Holy Spirit in our midst. It has not only led to the inward changes of many, but has led others to reveal outwardly the inner works of grace through baptism. With seven people making a public claim of victory, it was a joyous celebration as we baptized them with the help of our zone sister church Champaign First.

Easter was our grand opening celebration. With one hundred twenty chairs set we held our first ever sunrise service. A great breakfast was served following the service. Sunday School followed and our regular Easter service was again filled with the presence of the Holy Spirit. With just short of one hundred in attendance we were witness to God's saving and life changing grace once again as the Lord moved in a mighty way.

We are a blessed people. While we know challenges are ahead we also know if we follow God's lead and not get ahead of His will for us, all things work for good to those that love the Lord. Through the grace and power of God we have been able to overcome several obstacles. As a people we strive to be a beacon to those in our community, our immediate circle of influence, and to whomever we come in contact with. We are "everyday people with everyday issues trying to get closer to God." I love the Lord, and I love what He continues to do in the lives of those we put effort into. I am blessed to be His chosen vessel in this ministry in Urbana Illinois.

VANDALIA

There is no growth in numbers to report, but instead all of us here in Vandalia are committed to Life Transformation Groups so that we truly become like Jesus: and even more importantly make disciples through genuine Christian love.

I would like to share one quick story of my experience with a guy named Mike here in Vandalia that has taught me the importance of simple kindness, and how big of a difference it makes to those around us. Mike is a very Liberal minded fellow, and is very critical of people who claim to be Christians. The first day I met him, he thanked me for picking him up out in the sticks and proceeded to tell me how his two brothers who live on the same land won't give him a ride into town to get clean water, yet call themselves Christians. Over the course of the next few months Mike and I become Facebook friends and I check up on him from time to time when I'm out his way. The other day out of nowhere Mike says "If more Christians acted like you I'd want to be one"; I almost fell over, but managed to ask him to read the Bible with me and he replied 'maybe.' I don't know if Mike will read the Bible with me or not, but maybe he is moving closer to know the living breathing Jesus because God was good enough to work through me in kindness to a lost soul.

The Kingdom needs us to take the kindness and grace with us everywhere we go, and maybe just maybe we'll see our communities become wonderful places.

Love in Christ

VIRDEN

Dr. Warrick, Dr. Spruce, members and friends of the Illinois District Assembly,

It is a privilege to share my first report for the wonderful people of Virden. Since we came to the church at the end of the church year, I am unable to report on the activities of the past year. I will say it was obvious from the moment Joan, Nathan and I first started in mid April, that God's purpose for Virden Church of the Nazarene is stronger than ever. The church, though small in number is not small in their passion to seek to do God's will. I look forward to seeing what God is going to do in this new year.

I want to thank those from the Sherman Church, especially Gary Howell, who helped with renovations to the parsonage in the weeks prior to our moving in and the Carlinville Church for their help moving the appliances into the parsonage and helping unload the u-haul as we moved in.

I am grateful for the Lord's faithfulness, love and mercy which is new every morning!

WEST UNION

Greeting General Superintendent, District Superintendent and Fellow Pastors,

This church calendar year has been very exciting and such a blessing. Much has happened, from the Pastor having a mini stroke in September to God sending a new harvest with new young families, babies, young children and teens. Placing a Lay Minister Pastor John Cody, into a wonderful position in the church to share the ministry, with the congregation and the Pastor.

We are being able to build onto the church by adding two new Sunday school rooms, and a storage room. God has and is continually blessing and keeping His Church Alive and well.

We shared in a wonderful Revival with Bob & Jennifer Wilkerson that ended on Easter Sunday, With God giving us uplifting messages by Rev. Bob and songs with Jennifer. They are definitely being used by God. So looking forward to rescheduling them again in 2013.

Pastor Penny accepted a two year recall instead of a four year recall, believing God is working in many areas in the church and in lives of many others.

The Lord is good and we are so blessed to be His children, praising God for all He has done and continues to do in the lives of His children. Thank you Jesus for keeping His hand upon His Kingdom and teaching us to do His will.

Respectful Submitted;

Pastor Penny Brown

GOOD SAMARITAN MINISTRIES

We plan to have several outreach events this year to reach people with the gospel message – maybe around Christmas and Easter

We are researching ways to develop affordable housing for young moms so that they can stay close to Good Samaritan and stabilize so their children can attend GSM afterschool.

Programs and /or Christian pre-school

Goals for this year:

1. Implement the Samaritan Woman's outreach – reaching out to those women who are addicted to crack and sell themselves for the money.
2. Offer a junior high age after school program focusing on homework and bible study related issues that kids face at the pre-teen age.
3. Recruit and offer volunteer training 4x a year.
4. Start a Christian pre-school for children that belong to the mothers that attend the Wednesday MaD program. Ages 3-5.

These would be new goals for the year.

Professional Board development might be: Add 1-2 new Board members this year that can balance out the skills needed on the board (i.e. legal, development).

Strategic planning might be: Implement the Ambassador program in order to develop relationships with 10 new churches in 2012.

HOPEFUL HEART MINISTRIES, INC.

To Our Illinois District Friends,

Hopeful Heart Ministries Inc. has had a wonderful year as we have again witnessed the Power of God and His blessing upon our efforts! He has enabled us to minister to an average of 25-30 families per month through our Food Pantry, to help clothe those in need through our Clothing Give-Away, and to help the homeless through our downtown blanket distribution in the Fall.

We have a partnership with Central IL Food Bank which will be greatly utilized in the days ahead, as our Bus has been now prepared to transport and store both perishable and non-perishable foods. We give special thanks to Jeff Denton of Decatur Parkway for all his hard work in the installation of a cooler and shelving into the Bus.

We also so greatly appreciate those who attend our fundraisers, volunteer at the monthly Food Pantry and assist with our events. You are all so vital to this Ministry. To God be the Glory for all He has done and is doing in and through HHM Inc.

Serving Him with Gratitude,

Rita Briggs, HHM Secretary,

for the HHM Ministries Inc. Board

THE MASTER'S HANDS

A new compassionate ministry center has been launched in Olney, IL. With the approval of the Olney church board, and under the direction of Rev. Willard Anderson, "The Master's Hands," began serving the needy from their S. Whittle Ave. location in August. The ministry includes a free-coffee shop and a food pantry. They help the community by providing whatever they receive from a network of food-providing organizations in the area.

God providentially provided the facility without rent, and the District Mission Strategy Team approved a $5,000 NewStart grant to help with refurbishing the aged building. Tables and chairs formerly used by the Effingham and Vandalia congregations were also donated.

Food is distributed by "The Master's Hands" weekly, or by appointment. The coffee shop, which Anderson said is a place for people to enjoy free coffee or tea and snacks, is open from 9-11:30 a.m. Monday-Friday. He said volunteers are also there to counsel people if needed. "A lot of times, people just need to talk."

The Master's Hands opened its door on August 21, 2011 and as of the end of April there were 574 households enrolled to receive food each month that represents 1,551 people which 73.9% do not attend church. That represents 985 women, 271 children, and 84 babies. God has blessed us with God-fearing people, equipment, food and most of all with people we can love in Jesus' name. Two Bible studies and a worship service are held each week and we are seeing people who have left their Churches now returning to those churches and we give Jesus the praise.

"Creating a Culture of Discipleship"

REPORTS

NOTES:

Illinois District Superintendent's Report – 2012 “Creating a Culture of Discipleship”

We've had a little trouble with birds flying into our windows at home. Considering the number of birds that get knocked out it must be a shock to the system to be buzzing along and suddenly collide with an unseen reality. The windows are mirrors which reflect the sky, and for a bird the sky is the limit. You'd think that birds would tell their frequent-flyer buddies to avoid Chatham because they might fly into something they just don't see.

It's a privacy issue, of course, so people cannot see inside. People and birds only see a mirror image of themselves. A mirror is reality: a thief would see a thief and a bird, you'd think, would see himself coming. Thus, to define reality we look in a mirror because it tells the truth and to avoid the truth is make-believe. Please consider our district mirror.

The first chart on the screen is a decadal “plus” summary, a fifteen year reality review of four major statistics. In 15 years the total raised in millions is up from $8.2 to $9.2 million, and membership is down nearly 800 to 8,400. Tragically, worship and Sunday School attendances are both down nearly 1,000 each in that same time period.

The second chart, “Doing Church above the Mid-line – 2011”, asks this question: “Was your 2011 worship attendance above, the same as or below your midline or decadal worship average?” It's an unsettling but necessary question as you will see:

- 27 churches (34%) had more in worship in 2011 than most years of the last decade
- 48 churches (61%) had less in worship in 2011 than most years of the last decade
- 4 churches (5%) had the same in worship in 2011 than most years of the last decade
- Churches with worship loss exceeded those with worship gains at a ratio of nearly 2:1
- 63% of our churches gained one or more new Nazarenes in 2011, and 54% in 2012
- 20% of our churches paid zero on one or more budgets in 2011, but this percent nearly doubled to 39% in 2012. 45 churches paid all budgets in full in 2012, up by one.
- Budget payments are District, 99%; WEF, 116%; Pensions, 110%; ONU, 106%.

So to define reality we look in our mirror. But to affect reality we look in our heart and ask, “Are we satisfied with what we see in our church, and if not what are we willing to do about it?” I want to address ways to affect or modify reality.

Dad and I stood at the bedside of Mr. King in a nursing home. A stroke had come like a thief in the night and stolen his speech and paralyzed him. Then we visited Mother Blair, a ninety year old home-bound widow. I was twelve. How could I – let alone my father – have known that I would spend a half-century at the bedsides of the infirm and dying?

God was working through Dad by doing something formative within me, shaping my future one nursing home and house visit at a time. Being with him, seeing his compassion and hearing his prayers slowly refocused my world view away from me and onto others. God still knows how to help faithful people obey his Spirit and stir this present generation from its own interests to that of others. It happens through the example of people who are disciples and who make disciples. Reality is modified by creating a culture of discipleship.

1ST – Disciplers Pray

God has a reputation for doing mighty works in direct answer to prayer: Moses at the Red Sea, Elijah on Mt. Carmel, Paul and Silas in prison. God is more than able to respond but his Son's bride, the church, in too many places is like a sleepless person whose head tosses and turns on a hot pillow, preoccupied with small irrelevancies and large distortions.

Badly needed is a new hunger for God. Creating a culture of discipleship will only come by means of prayer and fellowship with God who longs for intimacy. Discipleship is a willowy phantom without prayer. "The movement from illusion to prayer is hard to make," said Henri Nouwen, "since it leads us from an easy support system to a risky surrender." But God is desperate for us to lay aside our agenda and confess our indifference. I must ask God, "What breaks your heart Father that should also break mine? Who are you burdened for that I also should be burdened?"

Personal devotional prayer is necessary according to this pastor: "I heard God ask me though Mark Murphy at the Pastor's Retreat, 'What do you want?' I answered honestly, 'If I could be really sold out to you, where you mattered most to me, I would not ask for anything else.' I was as real as I knew how to be with God, but I left the service with no relief. I went back to my room and prayed until after midnight. I woke often in the night and I would get on my knees and pray that God would become greater and I would become lesser in my own eyes. The next morning I still felt no change in my heart or spirit, but during my devotions I realized that I was thanking God for what he had done for me. I knew above all else Jesus was the most important thing in my life. I was excited!"

Still, fasting and corporate praying in many churches are nearly missing in this generation. Before I went to grade school I remember fervent public praying at the altar of Kansas City's Quindaro Church, and later as a youth the sheer volume of loud praying following the men's fish dinners in Texarkana. I will never forget the thirty teens who prayed individually but simultaneously around the altar on Saturday nights in Canton. The value of corporate prayer is not in its decibels or length but in the mutual expressions of intercession, praise and brokenness before God. Times have changed. But should they have changed so much that we no longer meet only to pray? No, we are not totally prayerless. But we are badly preoccupied. Join us August 2 – 3 for a District Prayer Encounter with Corey Jones and Maria Durso. Those who have attended Prayer Encounters testify that God showed up in a remarkable way.

“Though we strive to be a praying church,” said one pastor, “at times we still struggle for it be the very center of all we do. We felt led to focus on making disciples who will make disciples, and we are experiencing some of the fruit of concentrated prayer and seeking God. Sinners are being won to Christ, those who have fallen away are renewing their commitments and people are excited to disciple others and be disciplined themselves.” So disciplers want their churches to become houses of prayer.

2ND – Disciplers Coach

Our two middle-school age grandsons CJ and Jacks follow the Pittsburgh Steelers and New York Jets. Being from Florida, Jacks especially admires Tim Tebow, an unashamed Christian now with the Jets. Kids at that age have their heroes and heroes have their followers. But parents want more than athletic skill in hero-type athletes. Even non-churched people want good examples both on and off the field. The bar for what it takes to be a good example is refreshingly high among many not normally noted for their piety.

A disciple is a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. It sounds counter-intuitive – against natural reason – but an authentic discipler leads or coaches by following. Any good quarterback follows the instruction of his coach, and in so doing becomes a leader on the field among his teammates – and a million youth who see him on TV and strive to copy him. Paul said, “Follow my example as I follow the example of Christ” (1Cor. 11:1). A mentor is a leader. A disciple is a follower. To “make Christ-like disciples in the nations” means I must first be a disciple in order to make disciples. We cannot do unless we are.

Christ told his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me” (Luke 9:23). Paul taught Timothy, “Don’t let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity” (I Timothy 4:12). Paul further mentored him with these words: “But join with me in suffering for the gospel. . .” (II Timothy 1:8) and again, “What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching. . .” (1:13).

Mentoring is a way of being a servant and a leader simultaneously. Robert Greenleaf wrote “Everyone, at some time and in some areas, is a follower, and it is just as important to be discriminating in choosing who to follow as it is to prepare to lead.”

To mentor others requires being an authentic follower of Christ. Who is your mentor and to whom are you a mentor? Jesus disciplined Peter who disciplined Barnabas who disciplined Paul who disciplined Timothy who disciplined “reliable persons” who became qualified to teach others. That is, we are always teaching and always being taught.

Five pastors will soon travel to Cali, Colombia where they will witness the power of intercessory prayer that leads to evangelism, discipleship and the training and mobilization of leaders in the Church of the Nazarene there. Twenty-five years ago a dozen people asked God how to reach their city that was under the dark shadow of drug cartels. The rest is history. Today 14,000 worship in eight Sunday services. This remarkable turn-around was spurred by intercession and careful attention to personal evangelism in which converts were placed in small groups and taught discipling and accountability principles. Disciplers pray and coach; they lead by following Jesus.

3RD – Disciplers Connect

It’s all about connecting. 11 district licensed ministers meet regularly with mentors who coach them. This new effort led by Larry Lacher and the Credential’s team is a fresh way of offering accountability, personal contact and prayer. Nearly two dozen non-academic but practical classes, two annually, are required for all seeking ordination.

For nearly a year district superintendents for the Salvation Army, Assembly of God, Church of God, Free Methodist and Nazarene churches in southern Illinois and Missouri have met as part of the nationwide Wesleyan Holiness Consortium. Our purpose is to create connectional relationships among all holiness pastors in an informal, conversational setting. Pastors are strongly urged to be present to hear George Barna and Kevin Mannoia on “Wesleyan Holiness Pastor’s Day” October 30 in St. Louis. You will connect with non-Nazarene holiness pastors. Your lunch will be free! Connection is important.

The Mission Strategy Team, under Mark Copley’s direction, casts the vision well for each church: 1) writing a mission statement; 2) using the Church Health Survey; 3) embracing a target area for church multiplication; and 4) pastors partnering with pastors for prayer, mentoring and encouragement. Pastors must resist emotional and physical isolation from other pastors. So, pastor, how connected are you to your fellow-pastors?

Tim Young’s work at Granite City is all about connectional relationship.

Over 30 unchurched but open-to-the-Gospel people are connected. The organic – or simple – church has mostly pre-Christians that meet in restaurants; several new converts have been baptized. It is like your church if your church is intentionally connected to evangelizing and discipling. Tim's mission is to connect with lost people. People in Nazarene organic churches all over the U.S. are giving money to missions, reading an average of twenty-five chapters of the Bible a week and submitting to questions in Life-Transformation Groups similar to Wesley's approach. Let us love and trust the new ways that God is at work in our day. Congratulations to Mark Copley who was selected as the new Director of the Nazarene Organic Church Network following Darrell MacLearn in that position.

Bud Hance at Bethel began last year with three children in church. He writes, "In order for Bethel, being in the country, to reach children we must go to them and bring them in. My Mom and others began door-to-door calling on two to three homes a week with a loaf of banana bread and meeting parents face-to-face. We are now bringing in 35 – 40 children each Wednesday." Calling – how old is that? New faces – how good is that!

Sir Lancelot, Guinevere and the Knights of the Roundtable are not the real heroes. Instead, Rev. William Shotts, now in heaven, and our retired ministers – men like George Reader, John Ruzich, James Cottle are the heroes. They live modestly on small pensions.

Due to severe economic shortfall, Pensions and Benefits USA predicted an inability to fund retirees by 2023. Something would have to be done now to prepare for then. Raising your budgets was unacceptable. Somebody would have to step up to the plate to fund future Nazarene pastors' retirement. Of course this idea ruled out the Baptists and Episcopalians. So the General Board asked Nazarene university presidents in USA/Canada, "Would you allow us to reduce the 2.5% budget local churches give you to 2.25% so that we can increase the Pensions budget from 2% to 2.25%?"

One-fourth of one percent may not sound like much to you, but to Olivet it amounts to about $250,000 annually. This reduced percentage to save our future Pension, the Funding the Mission formula changes on the ONU fund, and the local church giving base lessened due to the economy, have cut Olivet's Educational Fund on the region by about $1.15 million annually – a huge impact because budget dollars go only to student tuition.

Despite the loss, the university presidents said, "Our colleges exist for the denomination we serve. Our retired pastors paid money to attend their church college when they were young. How can we as Nazarene universities not support them now that they're old? We're all in this together." As Dr. Bowling said, "Our retired pastors matter to us. We're connected to them." Cannot we say, "Our students matter to us? We're connected to them even if they aren't from our church!" Well, there is a way you can make a difference.

A revolutionary and new solution would be to pay your ONU and Pensions budget at 100%. It would be revolutionary because of its impact; it would be new for those who never do it. Our students and retired pastors deserve to know that we are connected to them. Since we are in this together the District Advisory Board voted to keep the District Budget Multiplier at 5.65%, with .15% going to ONU, which will amount to about $12,000 annually from the Illinois District. Let us be connected by love, not mere obligation.

Thomas Merton in Conjectures of a Guilty Bystander cited his lack of connectedness as a Trappist monk. His life was guarded, secure and surreal. “But in Louisville, at the corner of Fourth and Walnut, in the center of the shopping district, I was suddenly overwhelmed with the reality that. . . I had lived a life of self-isolation and supposed holiness. But the whole illusion of a separate holy existence is a fantasy. . .the illusion that merely by making vows we become a different species of being, pseudo-angels or spiritual men. . .”

This is a danger for all, but especially ministers. Neither our conversion to Christ nor our calling from God exempts us from the joyous privileges and sometimes pesky duties of being a faithful follower, and teaching others to be faithful followers. My prayer for you as you persuade others to follow Christ is four words: pray, coach, connect, thanks.

*Jim Spruce,
District Superintendent*

Mission Strategy Director's Report to the District Assembly

Members and friends of the District Assembly, it is my privilege to present to you my fifth report as Mission Strategy Director. I want to begin by expressing my gratitude to my partners in leadership: Thank you Dr. Spruce, for your support and wise counsel. Thank you Doug Haynes for your excellent work, and patience. Thanks especially to those who served with me on the District Mission Strategy Team with me this year: Philip Alvord, Kevin Donoho, Allen Ebber, Les Wilhelm, Rita Briggs, James Craig, Will Haworth, Timothy Mondy, and Tim Young, Jr. Your passion, faithfulness, and wisdom amaze me.

I'd like to begin by restating our twofold commitment to church health, and church multiplication. Recently, the Mission Strategy Team met to reconsider our goals and strategy for accomplishing our mission "To develop healthy, multiplying, holiness churches and pastors." In regard to promoting church health, here's what we determined:

1. While there is great value in churches developing a "written strategic action plan," the process that we have called "Refocus" takes too long, is often too expensive, and too vague for many of our churches to consider. We propose a much more practical approach that focuses on church health, rather than long term planning.
2. We propose, instead "To encourage every church toward church health one step at a time."
3. This process would begin with administering the Church Health Survey, measuring the church's health using the eight key characteristics (Empowering leadership, Gift-oriented ministry, Passionate spirituality, Functional structures, Inspiring worship service, Holistic small groups, Need-oriented evangelism, and Loving relationships).
4. Our response then would be to follow up with training and coaching, aimed at strengthening the church's weakest area of health. The Mission Strategy Director, along with the members of the Mission Strategy Team, would serve as coaches and trainers to assist pastors as they work together to improve in their weakest characteristic.
5. The process would continue with each characteristic, in ascending order, and will be measured with periodic reevaluation using the survey.

We believe that this process offers a more practical, and timely solution to churches who want to assess their present health, and respond in ways that will promote health, growth, and ultimately multiplication. Churches would also have the option of a full church assessment should they want a more comprehensive picture.

We propose to resource this approach by offering assistance to make the Church Health Survey affordable for every church, and by providing training and coaching for little or no expense. Today you can sign up to begin this process at our table here at the Assembly.

Concerning, church multiplication and church planting; I'd like to remind you that we believe that it takes all kinds of churches to reach all kinds of people. The process of church planting is a difficult one, and those who are called to do so face many trials. The work is tedious, and the Lord often chooses to move much slower than we would like. But it is his church that he is building and not ours, and the timing is in his hands. Those who are planting or who have planted churches on our District are heroes: People like Brian Trambley, Tim Young, Jr., Bill Brandon, Willard Anderson, and Nick Briggs know what I'm talking about. There can be long seasons of sowing, and nurturing, and waiting for a harvest that seems afar off.

Two other heroes whose work I'd like to highlight include Gary Clark at Harrisburg Oasis, and Wayne Clevenger at Urbana Lighthouse. Neither of these churches has sprung up in a day. But I think that is what has added to their strength, because of their slow growing approach, they have formed deeper roots and fellowship, and proved their durability through many storms and trials, some of them literally.

The Urbana church started in 2005 when Wayne and Karen Clevenger made the decision to fully commit to God's call to plant there. Wayne quit his job and began devoting himself full time to the vision. For several years they met in a rented basement of an insurance office. Growth was slow, but steady, and by using Upward Basketball, they began to meet the needs of many children and families in the area. The basement was full. Pastor Wayne challenged church members to seek God, give, and believe for a facility that would allow further growth and expansion of ministries. This year, those prayers were answered as God miraculously provided such a space: Ten thousand, square feet (3x the size of the basement) but at the same rental price that they had been paying. Now, they have fellowship rooms, a huge nursery, and several rooms for Sunday school. Attendance now regularly averages in the 80s and new ministries are being created to meet the needs of their community there, not just on Sundays, but throughout the week.

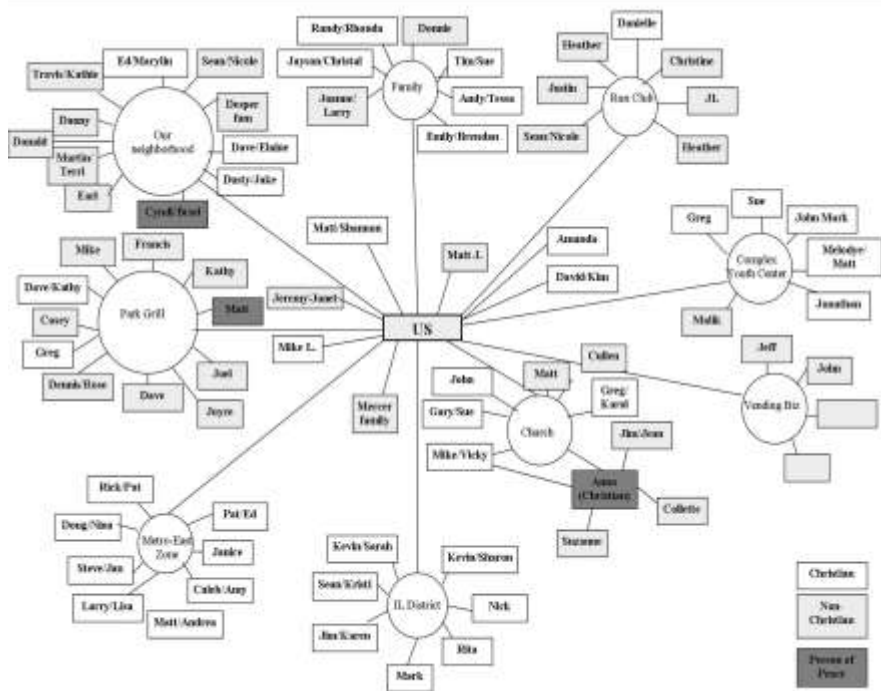

The congregation, we now call Harrisburg Oasis began meeting with Gary and Peggy Clark in a Seventh Day Adventist facility in Marion back in 2007. The district had recently closed the church in Harrisburg, leaving a building in disrepair, with water damage, and an unused, unfinished gymnasium. After several months of praying, Pastor Clark agreed to move the Marion congregation to Harrisburg to inhabit the old facility. Their first Sunday there was in June of 2010.

What has happened since then can only be described as a "resurrection story." The facilities, once damaged, have been healed, remodeled, and vastly improved. One would almost describe the results as a "Total Church Makeover". All the water damage has been repaired, new carpet and furniture now greets guests in the lobby, and the gym has been transformed into a beautiful sanctuary, seating over 300, with a state of the art sound system. New people are visiting the congregation regularly to worship and to find Christ. Some have found salvation or sanctification, been delivered from drugs, teenagers have been saved, marriages healed, and the word of God is spreading.

But the work of the Harrisburg church goes beyond the walls of their remodeled facility. As you know, on February 29th, the Harrisburg town was hit by a devastating tornado. Several lives were lost, and many homes were destroyed. Though neither the church building nor members of the congregation were directly affected, the people of the church sprang to action to serve their hurting neighbors.

Pastor Clark worked closely with Operation Blessing and other area churches to coordinate response efforts. Oasis Community hosted volunteers from several churches on our District. Church members from Decatur First, Decatur Parkway, Royalton, Marshall, Casey, and Salem were housed and/or fed by the church. Leaders from Operation Blessing, and four of the insurance adjusters (who used the church building for office space) worshiped with the congregation while they were there. The Oasis Community served as a witness to them all, and through their compassionate service, represented the "living water" of Christ, amidst the wilderness-like aftermath of the storm. They have lived up to their name, an Oasis indeed.

Our experiments with organic church planting are also encouraging. Nick Briggs continues to persevere in Vandalia, and we have the beginnings of a house church in the Casey area. Most notably, Tim Young, Jr. continues to build relationships and make disciples in Granite City. In this unconventional kind of church we struggle to define what success looks like. Once you stop counting the people who attend a building on Sunday morning, what do you count? We count discipling relationships. The chart below reflects the network of relationships that Tim and Andrea have formed in Granite City since moving here from Texas almost two years ago. Thirty-six of these relationships are with non-Christians, three of them involve those who have been baptized as new Christians during that time, and three of them are “persons of peace” – hosts who have opened their lives to the possibility of forming a new church. Please pray for Tim and Andrea, and the work of all of these church planters.

I also want to mention the work of Rita Briggs in forming a Task Force in Jacksonville, who are praying and asking God for a new church plant in Jacksonville. Rita has a strong vision and is willing to see her vision through with tireless work and prayers. Thanks to those who are helping her to do so. We pray that by next assembly, we will have news for you about a new church being established in Jacksonville.

I continue to pray and meet with others interested in a new church in Effingham. A local coffee shop has become our meeting place and our group has expanded to three. Together, we have conversations, share the scriptures, and look for Jesus in the faces of the folks there. Perhaps Christ will build his church among them.

I should also mention the excellent new compassionate ministries work, The Master's Hands, in Olney, led by Willard Anderson. This little building, just on the other side of the tracks, has become a place where folks are fed, encouraged, and taught about Jesus regularly. It joins our Washington Park, and Decatur ministries as excellent examples of being the hands and feet of Jesus in needy communities on our District.

What about you, your church, and your part in the mission of the District? How can you become part of a church planting movement in Illinois? Could your church start a new congregation, or a house church in a needy neighborhood? How can you expand outreach in the community you serve, to make more and better disciples from those who are far from God? May Christ the Good Shepherd send us out across our District to do so in the coming year.

Respectfully Submitted,
Mark S. Copley
Mission Strategy Director

Administrative Associate

This is my eighth report to you as your Administrative Associate, and I thank the Lord for the privilege of serving 39 years as a minister of which 31 of those have been on the Illinois District.

It continues to be a privilege to be able to work with Dr. Jim Spruce and learn from him. Add to that the privilege that has been mine to work with Rev. Mark Copley, District Missionary, the District Advisory Board, various other district boards and committees along with local churches as the opportunity has been afforded to me. I try to assist Dr. Spruce in whatever way he sees fit. I currently keep office hours daily from 8AM to 5PM. I maintain the website, publish the Booster, coordinate various district programs and represent the district in the sale of properties. I also represent the DS at district functions and at churches when he is unable to attend, give support to our pastors on the district, and handle several other administrative tasks that are ongoing on the Illinois District. Filling pulpits is also one of my responsibilities. I like to preach. To many of you who have given me the privilege of speaking in your churches I say, "Thank you."

Nina and I thank you for allowing us to be a part of the administrative team that serves this great district.

I also want to say thanks to Nina for being my bride of almost 39 years, for being a great Mom, and for always being a model of what a close walk with Jesus is all about.

Respectfully submitted,
Douglas E. Haynes

B. INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

Eligibility

The board serves only the persons who are properly enrolled. Enrollment is open only to local preachers, deacons-Christian education, deacons-compassionate ministries, deacons-music ministries, and prospective ministers of music who qualify according to the Manual, 410.

Courses

There are seven general courses administered by the Ministerial Studies Board; elders, deacon of administration, deacon of compassionate ministries, deacon of Christian education, deacon of music, deacon of youth, and lay minister (Handbook of Ministerial Studies).

Ministers, deacons and deaconesses will not be ordained without having completed their respective courses. An exception to this is provided for all commissioned song evangelists who held this status immediately prior to the 1986 assembly season. Those becoming commissioned song evangelists will complete the deacon track in music ministries. Those interested in commissioned or registered song evangelists' credentials should study carefully all requirements as listed in Handbook on Ministerial Studies, 446, "The Song Evangelist."

Modes of Study

The options for the course of study are listed below (by preference) as recommended and approved by the Illinois District Ministerial Studies Board.

1. A Nazarene university or an accredited university, pursuing a degree in a religious field of study.
2. Nazarene Theological Seminary.

3. Nazarene Bible College or NBC Ministry Preparation Program.
4. Northwest Nazarene University Online Module Courses
5. Nazarene Bible College: NBC Track.

The Course of Study is under the immediate supervision of the District Board of Ministerial Studies. Students are advised to pursue preparation or ordination by selecting one of the above-mentioned modes of study. Each student is assigned an advisor to work with in establishing a plan of study.

The courses required of college students are in the Manual, 424.3. The competency statements for ministerial education are listed in Manual, 424.3. All college and university programs must meet these competency statements for course of study.

C. REGULATIONS FOR MINISTERIAL COURSE OF STUDY

1. It is no longer necessary for students to purchase the Sourcebook for Ministerial Development. This information and more can now be found on the Clergy Education website (<http://nazarenepastor.org/clergyeducation/>) A Candidate Handbook can be downloaded for free from <http://www.nazarenepastor.org/ClergyEducation/LinkClick.aspx?link=Resources%2fUSAHB.pdf&tabid=74&mid=501>.

2. Each student is encouraged to take four courses each year. The general church requires 2 courses per year to be passed, to allow a student to continue. After the district license is granted to the student, only ten years is allowed to complete the 24 required courses, Manual 427.4. At 2 per year, the student will not succeed. Thus, the Illinois District has chosen to encourage students to complete 4 courses per year. All course work must be completed by the end of the assembly year (April) in order for the student to receive credit for that assembly year. The only exception is for those students enrolled in an institution of higher learning in which the class may not conclude until the board meets in May.

3. A student is placed in a study level based on the number of courses completed regardless of the level of the courses. The only exception is that the course on the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene must be completed before level one is considered complete (unless the student is enrolled in a religion program at a Nazarene institution) and before the student is eligible for a district license.

4. The secretary may not enroll anyone except by written letter from the applicant to include the following information: name (first, middle and last); address; telephone number; e-mail address; course of study desired; church where current membership is held; letter of recommendation from the church pastor where membership is held; copy of local license granted by that church; and official transcripts from colleges or other schools beyond high school. It will be the obligation of the student to see that all the information is sent to the secretary. An application form will be made available for anyone expressing interest in enrolling with the Board of Ministerial Studies.

5. Prior to being issued a graduation certificate, all students must be reviewed by the Ministerial Studies Board. The only exceptions are Nazarene Bible College graduates of the Bible Studies Course who are immediately issued a graduation certificate. No student will be graduated from the course of study without completing an internship program.

6. When a student moves to another district, the secretary of the Ministerial Board should transfer the student's records to the new district by contacting the secretary of that district's Board of Ministerial Studies. Students are strongly advised to keep copies of course record sheets and final grades. The District is not responsible for loss of data when transferring to another district.

7. Candidates should be prepared to appear annually before the Board of Ministerial Studies. These meetings will be scheduled by the district office and notification of the meetings will be sent to you.

8. Files for inactive students will be maintained by the Board of Ministerial Studies for no longer than 10 years.

9. Students are required to keep an active e-mail account while enrolled in the course of study.

College Students

College students are responsible to submit to the board documentary evidence of academic standing in harmony with Manual, 427.1, 427.4.

College students are reminded to plan their curriculum in harmony with Manual, 424.1 and 424.3. Yearly updates should be submitted to the secretary of the Board of Ministerial Studies. The Board of Ministerial Studies will evaluate the final transcript at graduation, and no requirements stated in the Manual will be waived.

D. CONTINUING EDUCATION

“Once a minister has fulfilled the expectations of the educational foundations for ministry, he or she will continue a pattern of lifelong learning to enhance the ministry of which God has called him or her. A minimum expectation is 20 contact hours each year (2 accredited continuing education units (CEU's) (Manual 424.6).

In order to facilitate the fulfillment of this requirement, a number of qualified events will be promoted through the district and by other means. An individual may receive CEU's by participating in a qualified event sponsored by the district, the general church, one of our colleges or universities or other approved method. When CEU's are available for a sponsored event, notification of the same will be made at the event and the participants will have the opportunity to sign up for credits. Credits will be based upon the participant attending the entire event and fulfilling other requirements (if applicable) for the event (such as extra reading or writing when appropriate). In all cases, it is the individual participant's responsibility to qualify him or herself for CEU credits.

The Board of Ministerial Studies appoints a continuing education director who shall be responsible to facilitate CEU qualified events and to resource individuals in obtaining CEU credits for events attended. Individuals may also contact the Department of Clergy Development directly with questions or for qualifying and awarding CEU credits for courses taken. All determination of CEU qualifications shall be made by the Office of Ministry. All records of CEU's obtained shall be retained by the Department of Clergy Development and by the individual himself/herself. Courses taken for degree programs are not eligible for CEU credit.

Mission Strategy Team Report to the District Assembly 2011-2012

Members and friends of the assembly, it is my privilege to present to you my fifth report as chairman of the District Mission Strategy Team. The Mission Strategy Team this year included the following members: Dr. James R. Spruce (chairman, ex-officio); Mark Copley, District Mission Strategy Director; Philip Alvord, Kevin Donoho, Allen Ebbler, Les Wilhelm, Rita Briggs, James Craig, Will Haworth, Timothy Mondy, and Tim Young, Jr.. We want to especially acknowledge the work of our NewStart pastors and their sponsoring congregations: Bill Brandon at Highland; Nick Briggs at Vandalia; Gary Clark at Harrisburg Oasis Community; Wayne Clevenger at Urbana Lighthouse; Tim Young, Jr. at Granite City; and Rita Briggs, who's leading the effort to plant a new church in Jacksonville.

The Mission Strategy Team distributed $12,000 in grants this year. With those grants we provided coaching, ministry materials, property improvements, and pastoral support to our church-type missions, compassionate ministries, and church planters.

This year, the Mission Strategy Team planned and presented two Team

Days. The first, in February, was held at the Sherman Church, and the second, in March, at Salem Grace. Approximately 100 attended the Sherman event and 131 attended at Salem. That means over 200 pastors and laypeople received encouragement, training, and support in these two events. Thanks to Pastors Haworth and Donoho and to our host churches for making these venues available. Darrell MacLearn challenged us all to live missionally among our neighbors, and all our presenters provided such excellent workshops. Special thanks to Professors David Wine, and Dr. Mark Quanstrom from ONU. Finally, thanks to Lara Mondy who did the work of planning again this year. We hope that many churches will continue to benefit from these events. Our Mission IS Possible!

Recently, we met to reconsider our goals and strategy for accomplishing our mission. In regard to promoting church health, here's what we determined:

1. While there is great value in churches developing a "written strategic action plan," the process that we have called "Refocus" takes too long, is often too expensive, and too vague for many of our churches to consider. We propose a much more practical approach that focuses on church health, rather than long term planning.
2. We propose, instead "To encourage every church toward church health one step at a time."
3. This process would begin with administering the Church Health Survey, measuring the church's health using the eight key characteristics (Empowering leadership, Gift-oriented ministry, Passionate spirituality, Functional structures, Inspiring worship service, Holistic small groups, Need-oriented evangelism, and Loving relationships).
4. Our response then would be to follow up with training and coaching, aimed at strengthening the church's weakest area of health. The Mission Strategy Director, along with the members of the Mission Strategy Team, would serve as coaches and trainers to assist pastors as they work together to improve in their weakest characteristic.
5. The process would continue with each characteristic, in ascending order, and will be measured with periodic reevaluation using the survey.

We believe that this process offers a more practical, and timely solution to churches who want to assess their present health, and respond in ways that will promote health, growth, and ultimately multiplication. Churches would also have the option of a full church assessment should they want a more comprehensive picture. We propose to resource this approach by offering assistance to make the Church Health Survey affordable for every church, and by providing training and coaching for little or no expense. We are offering an opportunity to sign up to begin this process here at the Assembly.

Much thanks to all of those who have served on or with the Mission Strategy Team this year. Together, we are stewards of the mission of our district: "To develop healthy, multiplying, holiness churches and pastors." Our vision for a new passion, for a new people, and a new Illinois remains to be seen. Let's pursue it together in Christ!

Respectfully Submitted:
MARK S. COPLEY, Chairman

Christian Cultural Engagement

A. WHEREAS, in times when our culture desperately needs the Church to be a living example of Christ-like holiness and love, we strongly urge:

1. All our sisters and brothers in Christ to remember that we are called to be the Body of Christ in our world being empowered by the Holy Spirit to the glory of God the Father. As a result, we urge our brothers and sisters to remember the importance of corporate Christian worship, the receiving of the Sacraments and the practice of spiritual disciplines within the family and individually, believing that these are primary Means of Grace by which the Holy Spirit shapes us into a holy people.
2. That pastors, evangelists, and leaders live and teach the scriptural doctrines of the new birth and entire sanctification, believing that the Holy Spirit bears witness to both works of grace through the infilling of His Spirit, and that the one biblical evidence of the latter is the cleansing of the heart by faith from original sin manifested by the fruit of the Spirit in Christian service: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Gal 5:22-24).
3. That the church manual be made available to all in the church who desire it and the Articles of Faith (Manual, Part II, para 1-22, pgs. 28-37) and the Covenant of Christian Character (Manual, Part II, Articles 27-27.3, pgs. 38-40) be read, or printed, and distributed to the church body at least once a year admonishing each Nazarene to diligently pursue a lifestyle that honors God, the church and one another.
4. That new converts be lovingly nourished and instructed in the way of holiness.
5. That all of our people, "in putting off the old to put on the new and holy way of life as well as the mind of Christ" (Eph 4:17-24), take to heart The Covenant of Christian Conduct of our church which gives guidance in areas of Christian Ethics, Entertainment, Marriage & Divorce, Abortion, Human Sexuality, Christian Stewardship, etc. (Manual, Part III, para 33-41, pgs 46-60).

B. WHEREAS, ethics and values are constantly being questioned and changed by our society, the church must strengthen itself in its commitment and conduct. Therefore, this committee felt it vitally important to not only reaffirm our belief in Scripture and our Wesleyan guidelines, but to also provide useful information in this document to resource both laity and clergy to make the church both a beacon of hope and a model of holiness to our families, community and world. (Matthew 5:10-17; Ephesians 5:1-2,8-14; I Peter 1:13-17).

Believing that Christ-like service is one of the most meaningful ways to engage our culture for Christ, we encourage our people to seek out opportunities for service within their local church and the larger community. We also encourage our people to work with and in public institutions as a means of Christ-like engagement with our culture on the local, State, National, and Global levels.

1. Each local church should strive to provide educational and equipping opportunities for Christ-like service such as:
  - a) ~~Special Christian Speakers & professionals,~~
  - b) ~~In-service topical seminars and open forum discussions, and~~
  - a) Ministries to the vulnerable, marginalized, and hurting within one's own congregation, believing that Christian love demonstrated toward those within our own fellowship is one way that Christ's love is made evident to the culture around us.
  - b) Consider initiating special ministries that reach out to the needy in the congregation and community.

2. Our people should show Christian stewardship by becoming involved in civic, community and school functions and cooperating with other churches and civic agencies who share our ministry objectives. Our pastors, youth workers and parents should maintain an awareness of the activities and promotions of organizations within the local school system and unite in an effort to oppose activities that do not comply with New Testament moral standards. Examples of civic organizations to offer aid and service to:
  - a) Pregnancy Resource Centers
  - b) Homeless Shelters
  - c) Habitat for Humanity
  - d) Credible Christian Counseling Centers
  - e) Food & Clothing Pantries such as Hopeful Hearts Ministries in Decatur, the Good Samaritan Ministries Center in the Metro-East and The Master's Hand in Olney along with multiple food pantries in local churches throughout the district.

3. We should actively monitor our State and Federal Legislature on issues which pertain to, and affect our church and community and express appreciation to individuals/organizations that promote legislature and programs which edify. We encourage the above while being simultaneously mindful that our commitment to

Christ our Lord must always be far greater than our commitment to any political party, agenda, or association. Therefore, we urge church leaders to make available the names and addresses of government officials and stress the importance of voting prayer for all elected officials. We also call our people to thoughtful participation in local, state and national elections politics, to ensure that issues especially pertaining to the biblical ideals of faith, family, and social justice while also wholeheartedly acknowledging that the politics of this world are not the politics of the kingdom of God. are addressed. We encourage the above while being simultaneously mindful that our commitment to Christ our Lord must always be far greater than our commitment to any political party, agenda, or association.

4. That each local church provides its members with ample opportunities to see beyond our own borders and mature into "global" Christians by staying informed about world events (both natural and political) and the persecution of fellow believers that we might pray for "the increase of His government and peace" on the earth. In addition, we urge the promotion of sacrificial giving for the cause of world evangelism and personally participating in Work and Witness when and where possible.

C. This report is a re-affirmation of our ethical and moral standards, as set forth by the General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene. It is the prayer of this committee that these suggestions and resources will benefit individuals and churches committed to fulfilling the Great Commission. For only through personal involvement can we go into the "fields white unto harvest" (John 4:37).

LET US GO!

Church Growth

We, your Committee on Church Growth, make the following recommendations to the district assembly for consideration:

Commission

We recommend that every church emphasize the Great Commission (Matthew 28:16-20) in every facet of their ministry. We are reminded that the Bible should always be our main source of instruction and that the Great Commission remains as our primary motivation for church growth.

Prayer

Remember that prayer should be the foundation for all church growth, and that without prayer; little of lasting value will be accomplished. We also recommend that the church provide opportunities for concentrated prayer and fasting during the church year. We encourage the support of the District sponsored Prayer Summits.

Mission/Vision/Purpose

We encourage every church to develop a mission statement, a vision statement, and a clear statement of purpose. These three key elements will ensure that we stay focused on God's plan for the local church. There are numerous books and other resources available to assist the church with this task. Any church needing assistance should contact the district superintendent and/or the district missionary.

Responsibility List

That every church maintain an accurate, up-to-date list that includes the name, current address, and telephone number for every person on their responsibility list. This will allow for better, more consistent follow-up and accountability.

Calling

That absentees be contacted through a regular, systematic approach. This is not solely the responsibility of the pastor, but should be a shared ministry within the church among the laity.

Discipleship

Emphasis should be given not only to evangelism, but also the discipleship. The new Christian should be encouraged to seek the experience of Heart Holiness which leads to a growing and productive Christian as a way to fulfill the Great Commission (Matthew 28:20).

Lay Ministry

We encourage our churches to develop a partnership between the pastor and the laity, which provides for every member to be involved in church ministry (discipleship/evangelism).

Education

That pastors and laymen take full advantage of educational and CEU opportunities, including seminars, workshops, videos, books, and especially the quality CLT programs that our denomination offers.

Evangelism

That new and innovative methods of outreach and evangelism be explored. Consider how the resources of the local church, human and financial, can be utilized most effectively to see souls saved.

New Church Starts

We believe every church on the Illinois District can and should become involved in prayer, creating or supporting new church starts. Churches can provide funding and or personal involvement of the local church body in calling, canvassing, etc.

Personal Evangelism

It is the privilege and duty of every Christian to share their faith with others. We encourage all churches to provide specialized training for various types of personal evangelism. Personal responsibility for evangelism should be emphasized.

Revivals

We encourage our churches to give top priority to annual revival campaigns. We strongly urge the use of full-time evangelists in the Church of the Nazarene. We also encourage the use of all media possibilities (TV, radio, etc.) to potentially reach as many as possible with the gospel.

Servant Evangelism

That methods of servant evangelism be employed in churches of all sizes and in all areas. Jesus Himself came to serve and to give, not to be served or become successful. Let us willingly choose to follow Christ's example as we minister to others. Such acts of kindness can serve to bridge the gap between the church and the world.

Finances

Set aside a portion of the annual church budget for purposes of outreach and evangelism. The Bible says, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Evangelism Committee

We encourage each church to review and implement the guidelines for a local Evangelism and Church Membership Committee as stated in the 2009-2013 Manual, page 71, and section 110-110.8.

Global Church Growth Award

It should be the goal of every church to introduce each new convert into the membership of the Church of the Nazarene.

The purpose of the General Superintendents' Growth Award (GSGA) is to give prominence to those practices that are central to the local and worldwide advancement of the church; specifically, new Nazarenes, significant involvement in sponsoring a new church, and 100% participation in fund allocations.

- Churches that win people to Christ are healthy.
- Starting new churches is the most effective means of evangelism known to the church.
- Fund allocations are essential to the cooperative ministries of the Church of the Nazarene.

- I. New Nazarenes requirements are based on 10% of attendance for the current year.
- II. The meaning of “significant involvement in sponsoring a new church” is very specific and is spelled out in the Sponsorship Criteria Worksheet. This worksheet is available online.
- III. Full participation in fund allocations includes district assignment, educational support, pensions (applicable to US only), and World Evangelism Fund.
  - The requirements for receiving this award are intentionally high—it is special recognition by the Board of General Superintendents.
  - It is not based on attendance or membership.
  - This award is not intended to replace all awards.

This award is given in recognition of outstanding accomplishment in essential practices of the expansion of the kingdom of God through the Church of the Nazarene. The presentation of this award is intended to say “Thank You” to the receiving pastor and church, and to elevate in the consciousness of our people the compelling importance of winning people to Christ, starting new churches, and supporting the organizational structures that make possible evangelism around the world.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD KEELEY, Secretary

DAVID SORENSEN, Chairman

Ministerial Staff Support

We, your Committee on Ministerial Staff Support, submit the following in order to care for the welfare of our spiritual leaders and encourage their commitment to our spiritual guidance.

The district office and the Pastoral Support Committee want to assist pastors and church boards in understanding their roles in providing adequate compensation for its pastors and staffs. Support of the pastor by the church is an expression of the belief in the call of God on the life of the pastor rather than a job where monies are paid for services rendered. Adequate compensation enables a pastor to fulfill his or her calling.

Pastoral support extends beyond the compensation and benefits for the pastor and staff and includes those expenses incurred by pastoral staff which is necessary to conduct the business of the church. Each church pays a sum to a pastor's ministry, which is divided into several categories: compensation, benefits and expenses. The sum of these categories is considered the cost of ministry to the local church, not all of which is to be considered the income of the pastor.

The district Pastoral Support Committee has developed guidelines for local pastoral support committees to evaluate their commitment to the ministry of the pastor. Anyone wanting further assistance in assessing or planning adequate compensation may contact the district office. In addition to consideration for the local pastors, churches should also establish a remuneration policy for pulpit supply, including travel expenses.

Senior Pastor

The senior pastor is the leader of the church and a leader in the local community.

Bi-vocational Pastor

A bi-vocational pastor supplements income by means other than church compensation. Churches should view the circumstances that cause the pastor to supplement income as a temporary situation to be resolved as soon as possible. The goal is to remove as many worldly concerns from the pastor as possible, so that the pastor may attend more intently on his or her life's calling. Recognizing that small and young churches may have difficulty in providing adequately for their pastor and family, we urge such churches to use what they are able to provide to the best advantage of their pastor and to strive toward the goal of full support.

Associate Pastor and Staff

An associate pastor is defined as a partner in ministry, on staff, whether receiving compensation or not. The church is to work toward a similar benefit package for the full-time associate as for the senior pastor (guideline to the church: an amount equal to 70 to 80 percent of the senior pastor's compensation package). Associate pastor and staff salaries should be negotiated in accordance with the recommendations of the senior pastor.

Retired Pastor

A retired pastor is a minister with retirement status. We recommend that retired pastors be employed for pulpit supply as frequently as possible. Retired pastors usually live on meager retirement benefits and may welcome the opportunity to provide for pulpit supply. Retired pastors are a source of experience and expertise that is available to the local church.

Evangelist

Often, the evangelist's only source of income is from meetings held at various local churches. We recommend that a full-time evangelist's minimum remuneration for such a meeting be an amount equal to twice the local senior pastor's weekly cash salary for each full Sunday in the special meeting (as recommended by the Evangelism Ministries of the Division of Local Church Growth). The local senior pastor's weekly cash salary and prorated insurance and Social Security benefits should all be included in the compensation. Additional compensation for housing and travel-related expenses should be paid in a separate check, allowing for maximum tax benefit for the evangelist.

I. For the Pastor

A. Concerning Salary:

1. That for all full-time pastors, every church provides a minimum of $450 per week salary. By definition, salary should not be deemed to include reimbursements and cost of ministry expenses listed below in Section B, Paragraph 1. The Advisory Board is to make the distinction between full-time and bi-vocational pastors. That churches which are legitimately unable to provide for such remuneration recognize that their pastor is bi-vocational and, therefore, able and obligated to supplement his or her income. We recommend that the district superintendent or designated personnel monitor the suggested minimum weekly salary on the basis of the materials provided by the general church's worksheet and, when necessary, give strong counsel to church boards to provide the above-stated minimum salary and benefits.

2. That the church place, as an employee benefit, an amount equal to 10 percent of the ministerial staff's monthly salary in a tax-sheltered annuity each month for his/her retirement. This is the third leg of the retirement tier recommended by the Pensions and Benefits office of the general Church of the Nazarene.
3. That the church review the ministerial staff salary at least annually and that increases reflect at least cost-of-living increases. That a letter be sent once a year from the district superintendent to the local church board secretary reminding the board of its responsibility in this area, and that a written summation of the board's action shall be returned to the district superintendent within 30 days of the local board meeting.
4. That any significant increase in the annual amount raised for all purposes by the church during a pastor's tenure be taken into consideration at the time salary and benefits are reviewed.

B. Concerning Reimbursements:

1. That the church pays reimbursements for all church-related expenses, and that among these are standard mileage reimbursement at the recommended IRS rate for personally-owned automobiles. To avoid additional financial burden on the pastor and staff during these days of rapidly increasing gasoline prices, the church board is strongly encouraged to monitor and comply with any increases the IRS may possibly make on its recommended mileage rate during the calendar year. Entertainment expenses, office supplies, continuing education expenses (books, tuition, conferences, etc.), gifts and all other reimbursable expenses deemed appropriate by the IRS should also be included.
2. Church-related expenses of pastoral staff should be qualified on the basis of material from General Headquarters, as well as the Internal Revenue Service. Every church should provide adequately to prevent financial strain to the parsonage family, and that every church provides 100 percent Social Security and full family hospitalization. That churches be allowed to maintain their present insurance program, and if churches propose a change, the change should be approved by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.
3. That the church provides the ministerial staff expense to all church-related functions, including the district and general assemblies. Lodging, meals and transportation shall be a part of this expense.

4. That the churches encourage and financially support its ministerial staff to continuing education through school, seminars and conferences.

4. That the fair-rental value and the designated additional parsonage allowance should be entered into church board records at the beginning of each calendar year. When a housing allowance is established in lieu of a parsonage, a review of the allowance should be made annually regarding payment, taxes, utilities and repairs.
5. That the Board of Trustees of the local church inspect the parsonage once each year in order to continue to provide for quality living conditions. No parsonage family should be expected to live in substandard housing. This inspection should be scheduled with the pastor and spouse and be done in their presence. Any necessary changes seen at this inspection should be completed as soon as possible.
6. That the local church board makes all necessary arrangements for the ministerial staff's moving expenses.

D. Concerning the Ministerial Staff's General Emotional and Spiritual Welfare:

1. That the church continually lifts the parsonage families in prayer.
2. That the church remembers the ministerial staff's family with suitable gifts at appropriate times during the year and consider a gift of no less than one week's salary at Christmas.

  - b. Two to ten years in the ministry: three weeks vacation
  - c. Ten to twenty years in the ministry: four weeks vacation
  - d. Twenty or more years in the ministry: five weeks vacation(District Assembly, Family Camp, ministerial retreats and seminars,

4. In order to benefit the church and the health of the pastor, the church should encourage the pastoral staff to take a minimum of one day per week for family time.
5. That the church allow the senior pastor the privilege of holding a full week revival or speaking engagement of one or more days, not to exceed seven days per year, with the church to be responsible for pulpit supply without loss of salary to the pastor.
6. That the local church offer the pastor/staff two mental health days each month to be taken at the pastor's discretion, to be used at a time when workload or individual stress is overwhelming.

2. That, in addition, Social Security on the amount of salary be summarily paid.
3. That evangelists be notified in writing at the time the meeting is scheduled of the minimum remuneration they can expect to receive from the local church.
4. That local churches avoid canceling previously scheduled revivals.
5. That a local church canceling a revival without notifying the evangelist at least 30 days in advance be obligated to pay the minimum remuneration in full, unless the evangelist is able to reschedule the same date.

III. For Retired Ministerial Staff

A. Concerning Reimbursements:

1. That local churches having retired ministers as members provide for their expenses to general and district gatherings they wish to attend.

B. Concerning Their General Emotional and Spiritual Welfare

1. That local churches having retired ministers as members remember them often, such as at birthdays, anniversaries and Christmas, with gifts of gratitude for their years of faithful service in the Kingdom.
2. That the Illinois District gives a one-time love gift to all elders upon their retirement. We recommend a minimum of $1,000.

We ask that each local church board secretary and pastor receive a copy of this report from the district superintendent and that the same shall be read or distributed by the church board secretary to the church board as a reminder of their responsibilities. The church board secretary shall notify the district superintendent in writing concerning the fulfillment of this policy.

Respectfully submitted,

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Illinois District Church of the Nazarene

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis of the Administration, Home Mission, Camp Ground, District Reserve, Medical, Nazarene Missions International, Church New Start, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International and Nazarene Youth International funds of the Illinois District Church of the Nazarene as of April 30, 2012, and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses and cash flows – modified cash basis for the fiscal year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Illinois District Church of the Nazarene's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

Except as explained in the following paragraphs, we conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1, these financial statements were prepared on a modified cash basis, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles.

As more fully described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the modified cash basis of accounting requires fixed assets be stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Management has informed us that the District has stated its properties at estimated costs and appraised values versus historical costs as required by the modified cash basis of accounting. In addition, no depreciation expense has been recorded in the financial statements. The effect of this departure on the financial statements has not been determined.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above (except for the effects of valuing fixed assets at estimated costs and appraised values) present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities, and net assets of the Administration, Home Mission, Camp Ground, District Reserve, Medical, Nazarene Missions International, Church New Start, Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International and Nazarene Youth International funds of the Illinois District Church of the Nazarene as of April 30, 2012, and its support, revenue and expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the statement of assets, liabilities and net assets – modified cash basis and the related statements of support, revenue and expenses and cash flows – modified cash basis. The accompanying supplementary information contained on pages 11 through 26 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain other procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are presented using a modified cash basis of accounting. This basis of accounting recognizes assets, liabilities, net assets, revenues, and expenses when they result from cash transactions. This basis is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As a result of the use of this modified cash basis of accounting, certain assets and their related revenues (such as accounts receivable) and certain liabilities and their related expenses (such as accounts payable) are not recorded in these financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The District considers all highly liquid investment instruments available for current use with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments in mutual funds with readily determinable fair values are reported at their fair values in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis. The District carries investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values in the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying Statement of Support, Revenues and Expenses – Modified Cash Basis.

Property and Equipment

The District has recorded its property and equipment at appraised and estimated values, which is not in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting. Depreciation has not been computed on fixed assets.

Income Taxes

The District is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the District has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the code.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Loans Receivable and Payable and Transfers between Program Accounts

Loans between programs have a zero net effect on the Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Assets – Modified Cash Basis and have been eliminated. In addition, transfers between programs have a zero net effect on the Statement of Support, Revenue and Expenses – Modified Cash Basis and have been eliminated.

NOTE 2 – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The District maintains multiple accounts at various financial institutions. Accounts at these institutions are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). As of April 30, 2012, total cash at one institution exceeded FDIC limits in the amount of $1,975.72.

NOTE 3 – INVESTMENTS

Investments are stated at fair value and consist of mutual funds. Fair values as of April 30, 2012 are summarized as follows:

District Prayer Encounter – August 2-3, 2012 Springfield First Church of the Nazarene

Speakers: Rev. Corey Jones and Rev. Maria Durso

Worship Leader: Rev. Gregg Sowards

Day Sessions: 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Evening Sessions: 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

“The church always fails at the point of self-confidence. . . . The root trouble is that the church has more faith in the world and the flesh than in the Holy Ghost. The church is powerless without the fire of the Holy Ghost. Destitute of fire, nothing else counts; possessing fire nothing else matters.”

--Samuel Chadwick, *The Way to Pentecost

Maria Durso:

Maria and her husband Michael co-pastor at Christ Tabernacle, the first church to be birthed from the legendary Brooklyn Tabernacle in New York City where Jim Cymbala serves. God miraculously saved Maria from years of abuse and drugs, and has given her a ministry of intercessory prayer which encourages women through fellowship, worship and scripture. She has spoken at numerous Nazarene churches and at the Dallas District Assembly.

Corey Jones:

Corey, pastor at Crossroads Tabernacle Church of the Nazarene in Forth Worth, TX, has been to our district several times for prayer encounters. A number of years ago Crossroads was ready to close. But at a Tuesday night prayer service God changed Corey's heart with a vision for intercessory prayer. Please read his story at www.ctgiveshope.com.

Registration Online:

Registration is done online at www.illinoisnaz.org; follow the link to “prayer encounter”. Pre-registration is required for adults for day sessions at a cost of $10. There is no charge for teens and college age students or for evening sessions. Pay by check or cash at Springfield First.
