

Memories of Rev. & Mrs. Carlton Heyliger

At the home going of Mrs. Elaine Veronica Heyliger, Rev. Carol Techau, Chaplain, recently reflected on some of the memories of the Heyligers when they first came to the Belleville area. Revs. Joe and Carol Techau pastored Belleville Emmanuel at that time.

Carol recalls, "Rev Carlton was invited to the US by our government to help keep down the race riots. We spent wonderful hours with the family listening to their beginning days in the US. I believe Rev Carlton was here at least 1 year if not 2 before Elaine and the family joined him. So many differences between Guyana and the US, even climate wise. Elaine told about it getting so cold that her teeth began to clack and it was decided they needed to purchase coats. One day as Elaine and the children were outside, she noticed that the apple tree had died in their yard, so she sent one of the boys in the house to get a big knife to cut it down. Too big of a job and then with the weather getting colder, the tree cutting was delayed. Months later as the temperature was climbing, they were all outdoors enjoying the warmth of the sunshine. That's when Elaine shouted out that God had performed a miracle. The tree was alive. I can still hear her say, "Oh, the miracles that God hath wrought!"

TEAM DAY

We had a Sunday School Board meeting and our superintendent started discussing Team Day. Everyone that went loved all the workshops and the food. One said it was "worth giving up a Saturday for" and another said "I will definitely go again next year". Just wanted to pass along these compliments to those that made Team Day possible! -- Amy Jo Higgins – Marshall
