Volunteers Needed At General Assembly

We are in need of anyone who is willing to volunteer at General Assembly in Indianapolis. After reviewing the below information, if you are able to help, please click on the application link and return to us by Friday, April 19th.

Children's Activities at General Assembly/Convention Volunteer Opportunity Descriptions

Kids Reaching Kids Playground - A playground area for children, who must be accompanied by an adult, will be provided free of charge. The playground area will consists of inflatable's for older children and climbing toys for children under five (5). Eight (8) volunteers will be needed for each two (2) hour shift. Volunteers will be responsible to check-in and check-out children and guardians, help provide a safe and friendly environ-ment, and assist children and parents during their time in the playground area.

Kids Reaching Kids Global Experience - This event provides children ages 5-12, the opportunity to play on the KRK Playground, experience an impactful ministry experience with Gregg Johnson and the J12 worship team, a special performance by the Korean Nazarene Taekwondo team, and a Prayer, the Word, Discipleship missions focused activity. Twenty-five to forty (25-40) volunteers are needed for this event. Most volunteers will be assigned approximately 20 children they will help guide through their Global Experience. This includes being ask to pray with and lead their children through a 20-30 minute missions focused activity. Volunteers will also be needed for check-in and check-out and as restroom escorts.

World Quiz 2013 - World Quiz will be held on Saturday, June 22, and we anticipate over 2,000 children participating! We are in need of people to serve as runners and general volunteers. Runners will be responsible for getting scorecards to the master scorekeepers at the end of each quiz round. General volunteers are needed for set-up, general information/security during the quiz, and tear-down. If you interested in volunteering for World Quiz, please contact Jenni Montebianco at childquiz@nazarene.org.
