

Ogden Work & Witness:

On August 10th a trailer full of windows, tools, and luggage along with a ragtag caravan of trucks, cars, and motorcycles carrying 19 volunteers left Ogden for the Cherokee Indian Reservation near Cherokee, North Carolina.

We spent the next week working on the building that houses the Cherokee Church of the Nazarene (<http://www.cherokeenasazarene.org/>) and at the home of Wanda, who is a Cherokee widow, a cancer survivor, and the sole guardian/caregiver of her three grandchildren.

We replaced 32 windows in the building that houses the church along with many other repairs and painting. We also assisted in clothing distribution and other aspects of their ministry to the Cherokee people. The seven men who assisted at Wanda's house worked for two days to replace flooring, plumbing, and repaired electrical fixtures.

The trip was an overwhelming success and the culmination of two years of planning and sacrificial giving during which we raised in excess of $17,000. It was a blessing to both those who were served and those who served!

This is the third Work and Witness trip the Ogden church has performed since 2006; once to Sun Valley Indian School (2006) and one to New Hope on the Frontier in Anchorage Alaska (2010).

Rev. J.D. Garlock, Lead Pastor
Ogden Church of the Nazarene

THANK YOU

We are grateful for our loving caring and supportive district family during our loss of our dear sister Sonja McManaway. The beautiful floral tribute was greatly appreciated. Celebration of life service was held today, Monday August 26 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Champaign, Illinois where Sonja faithfully attended for many years.

---Jim and Chris Blue

Thanks to Dr. And Mrs. Spruce and the District for prayers and the lovely plant when my step-father passed away. We are thankful for a church family that cares.

---Lila Chaplin
